World

Reagan plans Libyan sanctions — President Ronald Reagan is planning additional economic sanctions against Libya in response to the Dec. 27 terrorist attacks on airports in Rome and Vienna. The White House has received reports that as many as 15 camps have been set up in Libya to train terrorists. Libyan leader Col. Muammar Khadafy denies the charges.

Aquino vows no Communists in her government — In a new response to accusations from Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos that she is pro-Communist, Corazon Aquino declared that no Communists would be permitted in her cabinet if she wins the Feb. 7 presidential election.

20,000 South African miners dismissed — Congress, a leading South African mining company, dismissed 20,000 striking miners and vowed to dismiss 10,000 more if they did not return to work. The strike was called over wages and working conditions.

Nation

Grenade City Council presidency by a 7-6 vote. Bolling is the first black in Boston's history to hold the post.

Local

Boston council has new president — In a last-minute upset, Bruce Carlton Bolling won the Boston City Council presidency by a 7-6 vote. Bolling is the first black in Boston's history to hold the post.

Grenade at Garden — A live grenade connected to a timing device was removed from the Boston Garden hours before a Bruins game with a Soviet hockey team. The Bruins lost the exhibition game, 6-4.

Sports

NFL reviews incident — The NFL is reviewing the altercation between Patriots general manager Patrick Sullivan and Raider players Howie Long and Matt Millen which took place at the conclusion of New England's 27-20 victory over Los Angeles.

Weather

Tanning time — Today will be sunny with highs 20-25. Tomorrow will be fair; there will be a chance of snow Friday.