Men's Gym 3rd in New Englands

By Eric M. Reifschneider

The men's gymnastics team concluded its season Sunday with a third-place finish in the New England Championships at Springfield, MA, its highest ranking since 1981.

Springfield University won the meet with a score of 249.55 points. The University of Massachusetts at Amherst was second (239.15), MIT third (194.75), Lowell University fourth (189.95), and Dartmouth College fifth (173.75). By beating Lowell and Dartmouth, MIT proved that its previous victories over those two schools were no flukes.

Co-captain Brian Hirano '87 was the heart of the MIT team, as he has been all season. Although the Engineers started off very weakly on ponies and rings, Hirano pulled his best ring set of the season. His score of 9.05 was a season high and earned him second place in the meet.

After Hirano's inspiring score, the Engineers pulled together and began to roll. Matt Kaplan '87 executed a full-twisting back flip in floor exercises to score 7.95. Jeff Mann '86 performed a shary parallel bar routine for a
