Class of 1988

President

Andrea Wong

Vote for experience. Vote for dedication.

Andrea Wong

I am seeking the position of President of the Class of '88 because I feel a strong commitment to its well-being. As President, I will work to ensure that class activities are enjoyable, informative, and meaningful.

Secretary

Grace Ma

Vote for experience — vote Grace Ma for Class of '88 secretary.

Michael Franklin

Last year, my goals were simple: to form a strong Ring Committee, and to provide activities for the MIT Undergraduate Council and various student groups.

Brenda Chen

Experience as Freshman Class Secretary and Sophomore Class Social Chairman has given me a sense of responsibility and commitment to my class. Last year, I helped organize and execute such social events as ice cream orgies, a pizza party, and a class BBQ. I would also like to encourage more input, even critical, from the students.

Clifford Yang

As a candidate for this office, I will fulfill the official duties of the treasurer. But more importantly, I am excited about the prospect of working together with next year's officers to further the class's goals. As treasurer, I will continue to improve our financial situation.

Michael D. Fox

As a candidate for this office, I will fulfill the official duties of the treasurer. And more importantly, I am excited about the prospect of working together with next year's officers to further the class's goals. As treasurer, I will continue to improve our financial situation.

Lisa Martin

I would like to encourage even more input, even critical, from the students.

Social Chairman

Richard A. Ginsahl and Jeffrey P. Karanoff

inside the Spring Weekend and Autumn Weekend for Cowen Orgies and the game books at these events which the Sophomore class traditionally sponsors, we intend to have several more social events.

Michael Franklin

Michael Franklin

Michael Franklin

Michael Franklin