AIDS offers challenge for all

American taxpayers, $42 billion in 1990.
In spite of these facts, Congress has allocated only $288 million for AIDS research for the 1986 fiscal year. More alarming, the president's 1987 proposed AIDS research budget asks for $195 million, $43 million less than the 1986 allocation.

Many of our nation's leaders are afraid to confront the AIDS challenge for fear that their own sexuality and morality might be questioned. The "epidemic of fear" that AIDS engenders includes fear of rejections AIDS or openly helping AIDS victims.
We courageously ask our elected officials to enact a massive AIDS public education campaign. Presently, education is the best vaccination. Also, we must ask this Administration and Congress to have the fiscal wisdom to allocate a multi-billion dollar appropriation for AIDS research this year. Research discoveries may prevent Americans from being saddled with the looming $42 million AIDS medical bill.

By acting with courage in the face of the AIDS challenges, we will protect the lives of millions of American citizens and the productive and financial resources of our country. By showing compassion to the AIDS victims of today, we will prevent ourselves from being personal or economic AIDS victims of tomorrow.
