Choosing abortion is avoiding the results of earlier choices

choice, meaning in favor of the right of people to make informed moral choices about their lives, will not necessarily be pro-abortion, and a person who is anti-abortion is not necessarily anti-choice.

A woman who becomes pregnant due to rape has clearly been deprived of her right to choice. Yet, she will not necessarily be pro-abortion. Depriving someone of the right of people to make informed choices about their lives is not necessarily anti-choice.

GET INVOLVED IN EDUCATION REFORM

The three recently released reports examining the main features of the MIT undergraduate academic program can be read and discussed by students individually or by dropping by the UA office. We have copies which students can read, or stop by a SCEP meeting on Wednesday nights at 7:30 in the UA office for ongoing discussion.

The Institute, particularly the C.U.P., is inviting and encouraging student discussion on these matters. Don't pass up your chance to be a part of MIT's change and growth through education reform.

Class of 1990:

- Freshman Council meetings 1st and 3rd Mondays of every month on 4th floor Student Center, 5:15. All are urged to attend.
- Newly elected officers:

  President: Vijay Vaitheswaran
  Vice President: Tom Knight
  Secretary: Richard Villanueva
  Treasurer: Julie Kim
  Social Chair: I-Ching Wu
  Publicity Coordinator: Jon Woodman

Course Evaluation Guide

Weekly Meetings
Tuesdays, 7:00 pm in the UA office (W20-401)

This week is our nominations meeting — if you're interested in an office please attend.

Several boxes of old course guides have recently turned up. If you would like a free copy drop by our meeting and pick one up.
