Vietnam reports clash with China

Vietnam says its troops repulsed a Chinese attack at the border, killing or wounding nearly 50 Chinese soldiers. Vietnam's official news agency did not say whether there were any Vietnamese casualties. Chinese news media have not reported the border clash. The Vietnamese report has not been independently confirmed. (AP)

Breath test machine faulty

The state won't seek to try to reinstate the license suspension of a Norfolk man who was arrested under the new drunk driving law. Scott Holman got his license back Monday after a forensics expert said the breath test machine used to check Holman's blood alcohol level may have been faulty. Holman tested at 0.14 percent, well above the legal limit of 0.10 percent. (AP)

Weather

Enjoy it while you can

Except for the chance of a shower or snow flurry today, we are in a basically dry weather pattern which should last into the weekend. A cold front associated with a strong cold air mass will move off the north will pass through our area later today and offshore tonight. Clouds but fair weather will follon, so enjoy today's relatively mild temperatures.

Celtics to play without Bird

A bad back will keep Boston Celtic Larry Bird out of tight's game with Milwaukee. The forward apparently injured himself during Friday's game with Chicago and woke up Saturday with a sore back. Bird's status will be determined on a day-to-day basis. (AP)

Berry makes playoff predictions

New England Patriots Coach Raymond Berry says he thinks his team gave its all. Berry commented a day after the Patriots lost to the Denver Broncos in the NFL playoff's 23 to 17. In Berry's words, “This football team stretched every limit of their capabilities and beyond.” Berry predicts the Broncos will defeat the Cleveland Browns for the AFC title in Cleveland Sunday and the New York Giants will beat Washington for the NFC crown. Berry added that if the Giants play like they did against San Francisco Sunday, they will be very hard to beat in the Super Bowl. (AP)
