Listings

Student activities, administrative offices, academic departments and other groups both on and off of the MIT campus can list meetings, activities, and other announcements in The Tech's "Notes" section. Send items of interest (typed and double spaced) via institute mail to "Notes Notes, The Tech, room W20-443," or via US mail to "Notes Notes, The Tech, PO Box 29, MIT Branch, Cambridge, MA 02139." Notes run on a space-available basis only; priority is given to official Institute announcements and MIT student activities. The Tech reserves the right to edit all listings, and makes no endorsement of groups or activities listed.

Ongoing

February, March, and April have been designated Harold E. Edgerton months at the New England Aquarium. MIT students will have student identification admittance but general public admission will be open during restricted hours. Aquarium hours are 9 am to 5 pm Monday through Thursday, 9 am to 9 pm Friday, and 9 am to 6 pm on weekends and holidays. This special offer is made possible through the generosity of "Doc" Edgerton, who hopes to encourage interest in the world of water through the free admission program.

The Massachusetts Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators, Inc. is offering its tenth annual call for student financial aid hotline service. MAS- PAAS telephone hotline service will be available weekdays, 9-5 pm, until Feb. 13. Call 1-800-262-8538 to receive advice on financial aid application and eligibility requirements.

The Peace Corps is offering skill-training for programs utilizing the backgrounds of college graduates with mathematics and science minors. Peace Corps volunteers serve for two years. During their service they receive a generous living allowance, paid travel, training and health care. A post-service residency allowance of $75 per month is available to each volunteer. For information on Peace Corps service, call 223-7364, at Peace CORPS, 150 Causeway St., Room 1004, Boston, MA 02114.

The Science and Humanities Libraries (Hayden Building Library) are now open from noon Sunday to 8 pm Friday — 24 hours a day — and from 8 am to 9 pm on Saturday. From the 9 pm to 8 am access to the library is limited to members of the MIT community. Circulation and reference services are not available during restricted hours.

The Athletic Department has begun its Fitness Testing Program. The test takes approximately 40 minutes, and is available to all holders of an athletic card. Those desiring the test, and those desiring physical clearance forms should call 253-4008 between 3 pm and 6 pm Monday through Friday.
