Sports Update

Swimmers continue to set records
MIT women swimmers continued their unseasoned solid performance at the NCAA Division III National Championships held at the University of Chicago last weekend. Overtaking Grierson's '90 placed 16th in the National. The relay team is first in the history of women's swimming at MIT to place in any relay event at the Nationals, and Grierson's combined performance was also an Institute best for an individual swimmer.

Track member places in NCAA Division III Championships
MIT indoor track 35 lbs. weight man Scott Deering '99 placed fourth in the NCAA Division III National Championships held at the University of Chicago last weekend. Deering threw a personal best 57'4" to earn All-America honors. Wisconsin-LaCrosse's Terry Stroud's winning throw of 69'8" broke the NCAA Division III Indoor Championship Meet record previously held by MIT's Pat Parris '85. Paul Coffey of Worcester State took second in the event (52'2 1/4').

Ex-coach nominated to Track & Field Hall of Fame
Former Boston University (1917-1972) and MIT (1923-1935) track coach Oscar Hallond is being nominated for induction into the Track & Field Hall of Fame by MIT alumnus Alvin Guttag '57.
