Tuesday, Apr. 7

The World Affairs Council of Boston will present a lecture on "Foreign Investment in the United States: The Selling of America?" with Paul Steinberg at 6:15 pm. The program will be held at the World Affairs Council Rotunda, 22 Batterymarch St., in Boston, with a reception at 5:45 pm. For reservations and information, call Rachel Waldstein, 482-1740.

Tuesday, Apr. 21

The World Affairs Council of Boston will present a lecture on "Pakistan and Afghanistan: Storm Over Southeast Asia" with Trevor C. Wood at 6:15 pm. The program will be held at the World Affairs Council Rotunda, 22 Batterymarch St., in Boston, with a reception at 5:45 pm. For reservations and information, call Rachel Waldstein, 482-1740.

To the GMAT guru.

(Excerpts from actual letters received)

"I successfully scored 580...I am confident that I will now be accepted for the fall term." - Student from Pittsburgh, PA

"I am pleased to report that I have been accepted to all of the schools to which I applied." - Student from Richmond, VA

Would you like to:

• travel to Europe and Latin America
• meet with local filmmakers and politicians
• travel and work closely with professors and thirsty students
• live with families for 3-4 week periods in each country
• experience local culture
• expand intellectual and personal awareness through comparative study in a variety of environments
• integrate daily observations and experience into larger theoretical framework.

For a catalogue and application contact:

Jennifer Blevins, Director
International Honors Program
110 Millarm Park
Boston, MA 02116

(617) 876-7734

International Honors Program
"Cinema and Social Change: Political Transformation and Personal Life in Europe and Latin America"

September 1987 - May 1988

1st Semester: Europe
2nd Semester: Latin America

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN FILM, POLITICS, SOCIAL CHANGE?

Dr. Ghaith Pharaon

Chairman

Saudi Research and Development Corporation (Redec)

"The Private Sector in Saudi Arabia over the Next Decade"

April 13, 9:00 p.m.

7th Floor, Cabot Intercultural Center

The Fletcher School, Tufts University

info: 628-7016, ext. 3734

new music (nü müzük) - n

1. The newest, hippest, hottest releases from CBS Records.
2. The BEST New Music for LESS.

On CBS Records, Cassettes & Compact Discs.

AVAILABLI AT M.I.T. COOP
$5.99 LP/CASSETTE