On The Town

EXHIBITS

"Extraordinary Adventures of Mr. West in Africa and Other Anguish." The show is planned to be broadcast live on WBCN, 104 FM.

The Harvard Film Archive continues its Tuesday series "French Films with Alain Chabat," which continues through April 12.

FILM & VIDEO

Saturday, April 7

"Breathless" (1960) at 7:45. Directed by Jean-Luc Godard, this classic of French cinema stars Jean-Paul Belmondo and Jean Seberg, at 5:30 in the Charles Theatre. For a $2 admission charge.

"x x x CRITIC'S CHOICE x x x"

On April 7, "x x x CRITIC'S CHOICE x x x" will be "Golden Age," presented by the Harvard Film Archive. T-stop on the red line.

LECTURES

Poet George Starbuck, author of "Bone Man," will present a talk at 7:30 in Sanders Theatre, Harvard University, Cambridge. Admission: $3.

JAZZ MUSIC

A group of local and national acts performs at the Harvard University Affinity Orchestra's 25th-anniversary concert at 4 pm in the Sanders Theatre. Free admission.

FILM & VIDEO

"On the Waterfront," starring Marlon Brando and directed by Elia Kazan, is presented at 8 pm at the Davis Square T-stop in Somerville. Admission: $3.

"Bay of Pigs," directed by John Frankenheimer, is presented at 7:45 in the Davis Square T-stop in Somerville. Admission: $3.

"A Country Diary," a documentary of projected poems, is presented at 7:45 by the Davis Square T-stop in Somerville. Admission: $3.

"A CRITIC'S CHOICE x x x"

"A CRITIC'S CHOICE x x x" will be "Dancing Masters," presented by the Reference Gallery. Admission: $2 general, $1.50 students.

"Ensemble performs in a benefit concert to aid the New England Center for Homeless Veterans." The show is presented at 8 pm at the American Repertory Theatre, Medford, and continues through April 12.

"Extraordinary Adventures of Mr. West in Africa and Other Anguish." The show is planned to be broadcast live on WBCN, 104 FM.

"France," presented by the Davis Square T-stop in Somerville. Admission: $3.

"The Sorerville Theatre presents "The Actor's Christmas," a holiday musical by Luke Murphy with music by S. S. Stewart and lyrics by James H. Mortimer. The show is presented at 8 pm at the American Repertory Theatre, Medford, and continues through April 12.

"Wayne Shorter," a documentary by Richard Linklater, is presented at 8 pm at the American Repertory Theatre, Medford, and continues through April 12.

"Wild Oats," presented by the Davis Square T-stop in Somerville. Admission: $3.

"x x x CRITIC'S CHOICE x x x"

"x x x CRITIC'S CHOICE x x x" will be "Dancing Masters," presented by the Reference Gallery. Admission: $2 general, $1.50 students.

"On the Waterfront," starring Marlon Brando and directed by Elia Kazan, is presented at 8 pm at the Davis Square T-stop in Somerville. Admission: $3.

"Bay of Pigs," directed by John Frankenheimer, is presented at 7:45 in the Davis Square T-stop in Somerville. Admission: $3.

"A Country Diary," a documentary of projected poems, is presented at 7:45 by the Davis Square T-stop in Somerville. Admission: $3.

"A CRITIC'S CHOICE x x x"

"A CRITIC'S CHOICE x x x" will be "Dancing Masters," presented by the Reference Gallery. Admission: $2 general, $1.50 students.

"Ensemble performs in a benefit concert to aid the New England Center for Homeless Veterans." The show is presented at 8 pm at the American Repertory Theatre, Medford, and continues through April 12.

"Extraordinary Adventures of Mr. West in Africa and Other Anguish." The show is planned to be broadcast live on WBCN, 104 FM.

"France," presented by the Davis Square T-stop in Somerville. Admission: $3.

"The Sorerville Theatre presents "The Actor's Christmas," a holiday musical by Luke Murphy with music by S. S. Stewart and lyrics by James H. Mortimer. The show is presented at 8 pm at the American Repertory Theatre, Medford, and continues through April 12.

"Wayne Shorter," a documentary by Richard Linklater, is presented at 8 pm at the American Repertory Theatre, Medford, and continues through April 12.

"Wild Oats," presented by the Davis Square T-stop in Somerville. Admission: $3.

"x x x CRITIC'S CHOICE x x x"

"x x x CRITIC'S CHOICE x x x" will be "Dancing Masters," presented by the Reference Gallery. Admission: $2 general, $1.50 students.