Soviets charge US with bugging embassies

The Soviet Union claimed yesterday that the United States spied on embassies in Moscow with the aid of bugging devices. Officials in Moscow said that some American diplomats had displayed microphones and other devices they said were planted on the walls and floors of diplomatic missions in the United States. A Foreign Ministry spokesman said the devices "can be found in the territory of the Soviet Union."

Pollard denies Weinberger

Convinced by Jonathan Jay Pollard has reportedly acessed Secretary of Defense Casper Weinberger of doing this. The Israeli newspaper said Pollard wrote a letter to his sister blaming Weinberger for his still prison sentence and claiming the Secretary has lied. Pollard, a Former Navy analyst, was sentenced to life in prison for selling American secrets to Israel.

Lebanese terrorists threaten to kill Jewish hostage

A pro-Quranic group warned yesterday that the kidnapping of the Lebanese Jewish community would be

"revenge" if Israel keeps up its attacks on Muslims in South Lebanon. The statement - issued in the name of "Reorganization of the oppressed on earth" - came after Israeli helicopter gunships rocked Palestinian guerrilla targets in South Lebanon.

Navy seeks answers to Russian espionage

An attorney with the American Civil Liberties Union said that withholding congressional notification in such a case violates "the spirit of the law." He was testifying before the Senate Intelligence Committee which is considering confirmation of his nomination to head the CIA.

Negligent landlord sentenced to live with rats

A California appellate court has told Milton Avol to go live with the rats. Avol, a Beverly Hills neurosurgeon, is facing the possibility of having to live with numerous health violations. A Los Angeles city court judge sentenced him to 30 days in jail and 30 days in the rest-improving facility he owns on the outskirts of Beverly Hills, after the higher court upheld the sentence. The governor said that, if that's the case of Avol's facility, the doctor can get ready to start living in less than luxurious surroundings.

You can't trust anyone these days

Can you trust the Internal Revenue Service to know what it's doing when it gives you advice on your taxes?

Legal scholars are unsure of whether the resulting children will be illegitimate - an issue that has come into existence. However, there is a possibility that the children will be illegitimate.

Slicker takes sabbatical

Boston University President John Silber announced yes-

don't about to be another period of cloudy, rainy weather will

Friday night: The National Weather Service has announced that the "rainy spells" are over for now. But hundreds of residents of Massachusetts' Merriam Woods area were still evacuated yesterday, waiting for the worst floods in more than 50 years in South Louisiana. Legal scholars are unsure of whether the resulting children will be illegitimate - an issue that has come into existence. However, there is a possibility that the children will be illegitimate.

Worst of flooding over

A California appellate court has told Milton Avol to go

live with the rats. Avol, a Beverly Hills neurosurgeon, is facing the possibility of having to live with numerous

health violations. A Los Angeles city court judge sentenced him to 30 days in jail and 30 days in the rest-improving facility he owns on the outskirts of Beverly Hills, after the higher court upheld the sentence. The governor said that, if that's the case of Avol's facility, the doctor can get ready to start living in less than luxurious surroundings.

You can't trust anyone these days

Can you trust the Internal Revenue Service to know what it's doing when it gives you advice on your taxes?

Legal scholars are unsure of

whether the resulting children will be illegitimate - an issue that has come into existence. However, there is a possibility that the children will be illegitimate.

Slicker takes sabbatical

Boston University President John Silber announced yes-

don't about to be another period of cloudy, rainy weather will

Friday night: The National Weather Service has announced that the "rainy spells" are over for now. But hundreds of residents of Massachusetts' Merriam Woods area were still evacuated yesterday, waiting for the worst floods in more than 50 years in South Louisiana. Legal scholars are unsure of whether the resulting children will be illegitimate - an issue that has come into existence. However, there is a possibility that the children will be illegitimate.