Films

- Angel Heart - Alan Parker's oc-car thriller, with Mickey Rourke as the gemstone firefighter by a sinister looking Robert De Niro, has a strong, electric feeling that runs throughout the movie. Starring De Niro as a main character, Angel Heart is a strong, emotional film that will leave you impacted.

- The Nickelodeon. The film is less about pool than it is about theNickelodeon mov-ied the story of a young boy who becomes involved in a criminal network.

- Children of a Lesser God - A beautiful, moving story about a child with Down's syndrome and her teacher (William Hurley) with fabulous acting performances by the principals. Winner of an Oscar for Best Actress, Maren Ade. At Copley Place and Somerville (Assembly Square).

- The Color of Money - Sorren's directing debut

- Groping For Words - A psychological thriller starring Debra Winger and Theo Russell. This film doesn't quite address all the issues it raises. Largely about the fusi-

- Womberang and Groping For Words at Kresge

(Continued on page 6)

A service for the entire MIT community from The Tech, in conjunction with the MIT Technology Community Association.

Special reduced-price tickets now available for the following events:

- The Tech Performing Arts Series
- Porgy and Bess
  The Boston Opera Association presents George and Ira Gershwin's American opera classic "Porgy and Bess, April 30 to May 3 at the Wang Center for the Performing Arts. From the primitive, tightly knit society of "Car-and Row" to the tantalizing presence of the city with its lure of sin, "Porgy and Bess" in its broadest sense affirms man's capacity to pursue his dreams. InTech price: $5.

- Sinofova Chamber Orchestra
  Aram Gharianian and the Sinofova Chamber Orchestra will present the first complete performance in Boston of Rodolfo Aguirre's electrifying "Carmen Suite." Today at 8 pm in Jordan Hall at the New England Conservatory in Boston.
  MIT price: $5.

- Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra
  The critically acclaimed St. Louis Symphony, Leonard Slatkin, conducting, will play works by Haydn and Shostakovich as well as the Boston premiere of a new work by American composer Joan Tower on May 3 at 3 pm in Symphony Hall, as presented by Walter Pierce in the Wang Celebrity Series. InTech price: $5.

Tickets will be sold by the Technology Community Association, W2045 in the Student Center.