Paul-Etienne Texel did not have such a mother; he does, however, have Dutch, French, Native American, Indian, and Chinese blood in his veins, a woman's larynx and vocal cords, and no Adam's apple.

His pure soprano voice has been widely praised, and we've acquired a block of discount tickets to enable you to hear him sing works by Mozart, Handel, Vivaldi, and others, while garbed in costumes from the movie Amadeus.

John Adams will conduct the Boston Premiere Ensemble, which will accompany Texel's American debut in Jordan Hall on September 26 at 8pm. This is going to be an unusual event. Don't miss it! MIT price: $6.00

Tickets are on sale at the Technology Community Association, W20450 in the Student Center. Office hours posted on the door; call x3-4985 for further information.

The Tech Performing Arts Series is a service for the entire MIT community from The Tech, MIT's student newspaper, in conjunction with the Technology Community Association, MIT's student community service organization.
