I. Milne, assistant to the chair-course of action yet, said Wailer encampment. The made no direct appeal to it, -he motion against "Tent City" until an by eminent domain.
over the houses to the homeless homeless group continued to live are currently occupying an MIT-- and 56 Blanche Street to the members of the MIT community people camped out on MIT prop-
by Seth Gordon
preliminary, and that no propos-discussions on pass-fail are very member of the committee.
"The ultimate goal of lof the

By Wayne Wu
The committee on the First-Year project has an ongoing interest in according to Kenneth R. Manning, chairman of the committee.
which was established at the end of the last academic year by Dean of Underdegradaug Education, Margaret K. Mac'Year '55, will also examine the Independent Activities Period, the render and present a freshman's course load, core requirements, and advanced placement credits.
No specific proposals have been made because the committee's study is only in its early stages, Manning said. The committee has eight members, one of which is a student.
Manning emphasized that the
discussions on pass-fail are very
preliminary, and that no proposals have been made.
We're not thinking of turning everything upside down.

The search for shelter, it was spo-

and their children on a specific

At MIT, several groups have in finding permanent housing and return to page 18)

By Seth Gordon
fifty people attended a protest
Sunday night in support of "Tent City." The homeless group - who re-
them. The protesters called on MIT to support "Tent City." The

By Seth Gordon
I learned a lot . . . that's actually one role of the competition -- to broaden the public's knowledge of the problem of housing the

By Pauline Moeze
A team of four MIT graduate students in architecture has won a regional competition for degerating up to 32 children.

The design was required to ins cize the search for shelter, it was spo-

and their children on a specific

at 7:00 pm and is open to the MIT community. The chaplains and the chairman of the MIT Corporation, David S.axon '41, will address the gathering.

Lobby 7 sleep-in supports Tent City

By Seth Gordon
Fifty people attended a protest
Sunday night in support of "Tent City." The homeless group - who
re-
the issue before and

Lobby 7 sleep-in supports Tent City

By Wayne Wu
The committee on the First-Year
project has an ongoing interest in

Sacramento, California

Former State Representative Melvin H. King, who is also ad-whether the homeless are doing.

"We put a

The homes that are currently in support of "Tent City." The

... the committee of four MIT

the issue before and

The program -- currently open to applications by all MIT seniors except those in the VLA Internship Program -- will admit 25 to 50 students.

Siemburt expects that the program will increase the number of graduate students in the department. "Any potential revenue that is sourced -on Nov. 5 by the Boston

... the committee of four MIT

the issue before and

the issue before and

the issue before and

the issue before and

the issue before and