Tech should not have printed obscene quote

To the Editor: I was quite disturbed by a quote that you printed in a recent issue. "Racial incidents, fights lead to two MIT arrests," Nov. 13. Certain language was used that was unnecessary and rather offensive. I realize that you wanted to give the full impact of the quote, but I believe that you went overboard in pursuit of journalistic accuracy.

The New York Times recently printed the following quote from New York Mayor Edward Koch: "... to beat the (expletive) out of them." Your printing of the "F-word" was sensationalistic and uncalled for. I do not use that word in speech, and I do not expect to find it in my college newspaper.
