UA opens store after two-week delay

(Continued from page 1)

say it is not just the style, it just not my style," he said.

Rodriguez confronted James Argeros, president of the Coop, the weekend after his contertainment contract. He wanted to make sure the Coop stayed in the deal," Rodriguez said. Argeros made it clear to Rodriguez that it was his decision to make the change, and Argeros added, "I'm sure we'll see more of you around the campus." Rodriguez said he was not surprised by the decision, but thought it was a mistake.

MIT took a lot of time in signing NW30, 224 Albany St. Open hours. Free Meals. Pritchett or

Council criticizes MIT

(Continued from page 1)

and continued to do business with MIT.

"I don't feel the burden on MIT in the formation ordering an investigation into the Blanche Street incident. The Institute bears no direct responsibility for the incident, as it is a non-profit, tax-exempt institution."

Councillor William Walsh said much more cautious attitude to-wards Rodriguez and the student board of directors. He added, "You can't put the burden on MIT. Making MIT the scapegoat is just not right.

But Alice Wolf, another councillator, argued that MIT should take some responsibility for problems that arise in its Simplex development plans. Over the years, Simplex's development of lead for commercial purposes — such knowledge of the incident between Rodriguez and the student board of directors.

An emergency meeting was held on Nov. 1 between Argeros and the five MIT student members of the board, according to Chat. At that meeting, the participants decided that the Coop should retain its role as the ven-due for the store.

But Mark W. Phillips, another student member of the board, did not think an "emergency meeting" was an appropriate event for a minor conflict, which had taken place in a one-week notice had been given. Coop views store with caution

The Coop Board has taken a much more cautious attitude toward the UA store since the in-

The Coop Board was criticized by the UA store since the inci-

But according to Katie H. Hayes, "60, a member of the UA

expensive college. "I think it's a more realistic figure," said

"It's very important that the store open this semester, Hayes said. She stressed that people need to realize the term that the store is there to provide a convientence."

"It's like the first few days of February, people come here to buy their supplies. They will be the biggest sales of the semester," Ro-

"According to Rodriguez, the hours will be from 11 am to 4 pm, Monday through Friday. The store will only sell stationery and insignia. "During our discussions with the Coop, they told us they were the top selling items and their peak times in the old Stu-

"It's very important that in the first few days of February, people come here to buy their supplies. They will be the biggest sales of the semester," Rod-

Councilor David E. Sullivan said MIT's responsibility for

MIT's bearing no direct responsibility for

But according to Katie H. Hayes, "60, a member of the UA

share the health GIVE BLOOD

American Red Cross

Northeast Region

This space donated by The Tech

Your foreign language ability is valuable

We are a worldwide network of travel specialists and a one-stop travel shop. Specialities include EUROPE, the SOUTHERN PACIFIC and much more.

• Scheduled departures and return journeys
• International travel services

For application and test call off the phone.

Linguistic Systems, Inc.
116 Bishop Allen Drive
Cambridge, MA 02139

864-3900

If you would like to work in New York, Boston or Dallas with one of the nation's most advanced and sophisticated expert systems practices.

Our consultants in this practice help analyze, evaluate, de-
develop and implement knowledge-based systems to support senior management in their decision making.

Qualified candidates will have a Masters or Doctorate degree in either Computer Science, Software Engineering or Management Science, plus one to ten years experience in knowledge engineering or software engineering. Specific knowledge in financial services or manufacturing and excel-

We are currently seeking translators for:

- Arabic - Chinese - Danish - Dutch
- Farsi - French - German - Greek
- Italian - Japanese - Korean
- Norwegian - Polish - Portuguese - Spanish - Swedish and others.

Translation services are available.

Linguistic Systems, Inc. is New England's largest translation agency, located in the heart of the North End.

Linguistic Systems, Inc.
116 Bishop Allen Drive
Cambridge, MA 02139

864-3900

Taking your language to new heights, we specialize in translating your cultural heritage to new home! Coopers & Lybrand is an international accounting and management consulting organization that employs over 40,000 professionals worldwide. Right now we're looking for Expert Systems Consultants who would like to work in New York, Boston or Dallas with one of the nation's most advanced and sophisticated expert systems practices.

Expert Systems Consultants
Coopers & Lybrand

Coopers & Lybrand is an international accounting and management consulting organization that employs over 40,000 professionals worldwide. Right now we're looking for Expert Systems Consultants who would like to work in New York, Boston or Dallas with one of the nation's most advanced and sophisticated expert systems practices.

Our consultants in this practice help analyze, evaluate, de-
develop and implement knowledge-based systems to support senior management in their decision making.

Qualified candidates will have a Masters or Doctorate degree in either Computer Science, Software Engineering or Management Science, plus one to ten years experience in knowledge engineering or software engineering. Specific knowledge in financial services or manufacturing and excel-ent written and oral communication skills are required.

In addition, candidates must possess a willingness to work both independently and as part of a team, applying a unique combination of skills in the following areas:

- Automated Knowledge Acquisition
- Cooperating Expert Systems
- Planning and Scheduling
- Real-time Expert Systems
- Diagnostic Expert Systems
- Computer-aided Software Engineering

If you would like to work a vital role in one of the largest AI and expert systems consulting practices in the world, with a stimulating work environment, unlimited growth potential and highly competitive salary, consider Coopers & Lybrand.

We will be holding interviews on campus on December 2nd in the placement office, room 12-170. Please see Miriam Diamond of your placement office for specific interview schedule. Coopers & Lybrand can sign up until 3 p.m. on Tuesday, December 1st.

Coopers & Lybrand is an equal opportunity employer.

Page 18 The Tech TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1987

PHYSICS OR ENGINEERING
RESEARCH TECHNICIAN

Experienced research technician with a degree in physics or engineering to manage and maintain x-ray Diffraction Laboratory. The position requires a responsible, technical individual with mechanical skills. Maintenance of X-ray optics and diffractometers requires precision and attention to detail. Some knowledge of vacuum technology and electronics useful. The ability to perform tight machining a plus. We offer a stimulating work environment focused on determining the structure of proteins, DNA-protein complexes and viruses. Send resume to: Prof. D. Wiley or Prof. S. O'Brien at Howard Hughes Medical Institute, Laboratory of Structural Molecular Biology, at Harvard University, 7 Divinity Avenue, Cambridge, MA 02138.

Coopers & Lybrand Quality Service through Initiative and Teamwork