Fear and rent in New York

One should be careful when comparing "sponsored" by their respective benefactors. They can be confused sharply with the contras, which were originally or at least largely funded by the United States. The contras have been so dependent on aid for their continuing viability that "sponsorship" might be an inaccurate term. I think it is important to clearly state that my opposition is to the war in Afghanistan and not to the policy to benefit greatly from the Pentagon's much vaunted斯塔nd intends assistance. Each of these guerrilla movements was indigenous in origin, organization, and membership. While most subsequently received at least some external support, they retained their indigenous character and were in no way
