On The Town
Compiled by Peter Dunn

Ongoing Theater

* * *

CRITIC'S CHOICE Lost in Yonkers at the Boston Conservatory. A New York hit and first Off-Broadway production, this is a funny and touching play about the gangling Tom Keeney, the son of a once-great actor and his new family, directed by James Lapine. 209 Ames Street, Boston. No admission charge. Show schedule: Tuesday through Sunday. Telephone: 262-2437.

CRITIC'S CHOICE The Importance of Being Earnest at the Huntington Avenue Theatre. This classic play is performed by the Boston University Theatre Company and directed by Jack S. Girls is the perfect vehicle for the comical, poetic stagecraft of Wilde. "A laugh a minute," according to the Boston Herald. 265 Huntington Avenue, Boston. Phone: 426-2786.

CRITIC'S CHOICE Rehearsal Dinner directed by Mark Lebowitz, at the North End Charlestown. "Rehearsal Dinner" is a two-character play about a wife and husband whose分别为四个不同的字符匹配。他们分别是：

1. Lost in Yonkers
   - Venue: Boston Conservatory
   - Director: James Lapine
   - Performance Schedule: Tuesday through Sunday
   - Phone: 262-2437

2. The Importance of Being Earnest
   - Venue: Huntington Avenue Theatre
   - Director: Jack S. Girls
   - Performances: Perfect vehicle for the stagecraft of Wilde
   - Phone: 426-2786

3. The New World
   - Venue: Boston Opera House
   - Composer: Samuel Barber
   - Libretto: Virgil Thomson
   - Performance Schedule: Thursdays through Sundays
   - Phone: 357-8384

4. Rehearsal Dinner
   - Venue: North End Charlestown
   - Director: Mark Lebowitz
   - Phone: 262-2437