On The Town
Compiled by Peter Dunn

Ongoing Theater

FILM & VIDEO

The Coolidge Corner Theater presents The Fabulous Wreck in the 4:30 showing May 28. The Coolidge Corner Theater presents Dark Heart of the Calypso at 1:30 on May 26. (Tickets $6.50.)

Ongoing Music

There are brother and sister, opens today at the Somerville Theatre. Telephone: 661-7067.

The Somerville Theatre presents Wild (Jonathan Demme) at 1:30, 5:40, & 9:45. Located at 40 Brattle Street, Somerville, near the Porter Square MBTA T-stop on the green line. Telephone: 864-1200.

The Rob (The Godfather) performs at 8:30 at the 1369 Club, 1369 Cambridge Avenue, Somerville. Performances are Wed, Sat, & Sun at 2 pm. Tickets: $12 to $15. Telephone: 623-2500.

COMEDY

Ongoing Exhibits

Saturday, May 28

The Multicultural Center presents a multimedia live animation based on Edgar Allan Poe's story of a samaritan for the murderer of his own brother. Telephone: 426-6912.

Announcements

Looking for a summer job? The Energy and Environmental Policy Center based at the Kennedy School at Harvard University has a number of paid internships available. A background in energy or the environment is not necessary. If interested, please contact Christine Doyle at (617) 373-3555 or come to Belfer 309 on the Kennedy School of Government.

The I. Austin Kelly III Prize Competition for 1987-88 is now open. The competition consists of two prizes for the best scholarly or critical papers in literary studies, history, musicology, anthropology, and archaeology. Rules and guidelines are available in Room 414N-409 (x3-4468).

The Student Conservation Association is continuing to accept applications from persons interested in 12 week, expense paid internships in national parks, forests, wildlife refuges, and other conservation areas across the US. For an application and a list of positions open, contact the Student Conservation Association, PO Box 555C, Charlton, NH 03603, (603) 526-5114.

Summer Volunteer Opportunity with the Samurians. You can become a Samurian for the summer. There will be a weekend training session on June 12th and June 13th. Class size is limited. Call soon. For more information, call 423-41-3540.

For students searching for ways to break the boring routine of the semester, the Council on International Educational Exchange announces the 1988 Student Travel Counseling. The Catalog, with the most comprehensive, FREE, budget travel guides available. It is released from CREC, Dept. S8, 205 East 42nd Street, New York, NY 10017, (212) 661-1414 or 312 Setter Street, San Francisco, CA 94108, (415) 421-3475. Enclose $1 for postage and handling.

NOTICES

Arts

The Multicultural Center presents a multimedia live animation based on Edgar Allan Poe's story of a samaritan for the murderer of his own brother. Telephone: 426-6912.

CREDITS: CRITIC'S CHOICE

In The People vs. Larry Collin, a trio of judges (Joan Cusack, Robin Davis, and Michael Ontkean) try to determine the guilt or innocence of a man who killed his wife while she was pregnant. The film, directed by Mark Rydell, is a powerful and disturbing study of the American justice system, and a searing indictment of the legal profession. On Tuesday, May 24, at the 1369 Club, 1369 Cambridge Avenue, Somerville, Performances are Wed, Sat, & Sun at 2 pm. Tickets: $12 to $15. Telephone: 623-2500.

FILM & VIDEO

The Multicultural Center presents an evening of experimental multimedia animation based on Edgar Allan Poe's story of a samaritan for the murderer of his own brother. Telephone: 426-6912.

COmEDY

The Multicultural Center presents an evening of experimental multimedia animation based on Edgar Allan Poe's story of a samaritan for the murderer of his own brother. Telephone: 426-6912.

Ongoing Exhibits

Announcements

Looking for a summer job? The Energy and Environmental Policy Center based at the Kennedy School at Harvard University has a number of paid internships available. A background in energy or the environment is not necessary. If interested, please contact Christine Doyle at (617) 373-3555 or come to Belfer 309 on the Kennedy School of Government.

The I. Austin Kelly III Prize Competition for 1987-88 is now open. The competition consists of two prizes for the best scholarly or critical papers in literary studies, history, musicology, anthropology, and archaeology. Rules and guidelines are available in Room 414N-409 (x3-4468).

The Student Conservation Association is continuing to accept applications from persons interested in 12 week, expense paid internships in national parks, forests, wildlife refuges, and other conservation areas across the US. For an application and a list of positions open, contact the Student Conservation Association, PO Box 555C, Charlton, NH 03603, (603) 526-5114.

Summer Volunteer Opportunity with the Samurians. You can become a Samurian for the summer. There will be a weekend training session on June 12th and June 13th. Class size is limited. Call soon. For more information, call 423-41-3540.

For students searching for ways to break the boring routine of the semester, the Council on International Educational Exchange announces the 1988 Student Travel Counseling. The Catalog, with the most comprehensive, FREE, budget travel guides available. It is released from CREC, Dept. S8, 205 East 42nd Street, New York, NY 10017, (212) 661-1414 or 312 Setter Street, San Francisco, CA 94108, (415) 421-3475. Enclose $1 for postage and handling.