MIT sends Elms back to the woods

By Adam Braun

The MIT women's field hockey squad defeated a tough team from Elms College 3-1 on Tuesday. The victory evened the Engineers' record to 6-6-1, and was the last game to be played this week at home, where the Engineers had a winning record of 5-0.

The Engineers got off to a quick lead less than five minutes into the first half. Kristin Domingo '90 smashed a short corner attempt put into play by Kristin Anderson '91 and stopped for the shot by forward Kristin Ward '91, who led the team in assists for the day, passing the shot into the first half. Kirsten Doneer '90 smacked in a short corner, putting the Engineers ahead 2-0 after homecoming victory. As the thermometer slowly rose, MIT seemed to take all this in stride, though, as they regained the lead, Haas stepped back into action.

LaHousse shares player of week award

Tailback Shane LaHousse '90 received a spot on the Eastern Massachusetts University Athletic Conference Weekly Honor Roll and was named the New England College Athletic Conference offensive player of the week for his performance on homecoming. LaHousse gained 184 yards on 27 carries and scored two touchdowns against Assumption Saturday. He leads the conference in scoring with an average of 12 points per game and in rushing with a 163 yards-per-game average -- 70 yards-per-game more than the league's number two rusher.

Shane quietly breaks 1000 yards in opener

Lost in all the fanfare over LaHousse's 260-yard, four-touchdown performance in the Beaver's season opener against Stonehill College was the fact that he broke the 1000-yard mark for career rushing yardage in that game. His 1252 career yards places him third on MIT's all-time rushing list behind Hugh Ekberg '88 (2213 yards) and Christopher J. Adams '87 (2069 yards).
