When you fill out your Form W-4, "Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate," remember:

If you can be claimed on your parent's or another person's tax return, you generally cannot be exempt from income tax withholding. To get it right, read the instructions that came with your Form W-4.

JEWISH INTRODUCTIONS

We announce for you:

* An unpressured, student-designed service to introduce you to other Jewish graduate and undergraduate students in Boston.

* We feature a brief interview* and we will match students from all of the Boston area schools. Interviews will be conducted at your campus beginning late October and at regular intervals throughout the academic year. Matches will be made between November and May.

You and your potential friend will each receive a confidential letter, so that you can arrange to meet each other at your mutual convenience. Whereas possible, participants will receive more than one match upon completion of a follow-up questionnaire. All inquiries and information will be held in strict confidence.

There is a non-refundable eighteen dollar fee for students and a forty dollar fee for non-students. Payments are due at the time of the interview.

* Call Adena at 264-3602 between 9 a.m. and 11 p.m., Monday through Friday for interview appointments and information.

* Conditions must be met (times in advance).

A project of the Metropolitan Outreach Program of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Council of Greater Boston, 233 Bay State Road, Boston, MA 02215 a Beneficiary of Combined Jewish Philanthropies.

* Rochelle Steinberg, Director of Jewish Introductions.
