For 50 years, we at AT&T have made it our business to put artists and audiences together. Often the result is applause. Sometimes gasps. Always spirited communication. And communication, after all, has been our business for more than a century.

ROBERT LONGO

LONGO vs. CONVENTION

Art from the dark side? Or the cutting edge of creativity? These questions are being asked at the Wadsworth Atheneum—sparked by the convention-breaking work of Robert Longo in a dramatic retrospective sponsored by AT&T, here in its only East Coast presentation after a cross-country tour.

The spectacular art of Robert Longo is causing debate and making viewers stand back and take notice. Of the power with which he brings together drawing, painting, sculpture, music, and video. Of the impact with which he challenges convention. And of the audacity with which he assuages our senses.

Melissa Etheridge at Great Woods on July 14.
