Jim's Journal

I worked at the copy store today.

Afterwards, I walked home the long way, by the lake.

There were people walking around the lake, and ducks sitting on the shore.

I decided to sit and watch people go by, and listen to the ducks quack.

Steve came over today.

"Hey, Mr. P.," he said when he saw Mr. Peterson.

Then he said, "Jim, look what I brought."

It was the board game, Sorry.

We played a few games of Sorry, and Mr. Peterson kept pouncing on the game pieces.

For the price of a book, we can teach the illiterate to read.
