Letters to the Editor

Paul Tsongas: A Democrat with Integrity and Vision

March 6, 1992

Massachusetts is one of 11 states where voters will make their choice for the Democratic presidential nomination Tuesday, and we urge all eligible members of the MIT community to exercise their right to vote.

Harassment on Ride Van Causes Discomfort

The Tech received a copy of this letter addressed to Dean of Undergraduate Education and Student Affairs Arthur C. Smith.

Survey Skews Picture of Harassment at MIT

The results of the recent undergraduate harassment survey ("Nearly Half of Women Say Yes" in the April 23 issue of the Tech, page 2) are, as Provost Samuel J. Keyser and President Charles M. Vest suggest, disturbing. However, we believe the survey is biased and therefore invalid.

Jerry Brown: Vote on Issues, Not Elegibility

Tom Locke wishes to use this survey "wisely to create a community where all members treat each other with decency and respect. While this is a noble objective, it's a bit utopian. All we can truly do is educate people in order to raise awareness, and to set up support channels for those who are harassed or harasse