Yvonne Lin

The duties of Senior Class President are plentiful. There are projects to attend to, money to raise, and correspondence to write — just to name a few. The most obvious projects include the Junior/Senior Pub, the Career Fairs, the coordination of the Senior Gift, and the participation in the Commencement Committee.

I plan to perform these tasks very well. My predecessor, the Senior Class President must possess several qualities. The Senior Class President must realize and fulfill the enormous time commitment inherent in such a position. I am fully aware of this time commitment and am willing and ready to fulfill it. If the Senior Class President must be extremely hard working and must successfully execute all the duties as prompt, the person must demonstrate that she will get things done. I believe that I have demonstrated my ability through my past involvement with class council and other activities.

Getting things done involves not only doing things, but also ensuring the help of other class members. We all know that our senior year is perhaps our most important year in our MIT experience and we want to have a memorable year. We shall need the help of all our classmates to accomplish this goal.

May Nasrallah

With all the people running for Class President, why should you vote for me?

Over the past three years, I have been quietly building my reputation as a capable student leader. I have helped fund, and am currently President of the Student Alumni Association. I have also held other positions of responsibility such as President of the Lehman Club, Project Coordinator Committee, Associate President Tisch Dance, and Coordinator, RSO Coordinator.

Next year will be our final year at MIT, and it should be a time of reflection and growth. We cannot allow five years of growth to be wasted. I propose that we bring our class together in an organized way. I have organized this through my past involvement with class council and other activities.

Sridhara Venkatesh

The way I see it, the Class of 1993 needs an officer who will be dedicated to the intellectual growth of this class. We can walk away with so many wonderful memories and a great feeling of accomplishment. I am dedicated to the intellectual growth of the class. As the Senior Class President, I will help ensure that the members of the Class of 1993 are able to utilize the Institute in the most effective manner.

Valee Gafori & Queen Chu

Hi! We are Valee and Queen Chu, two of your Jr/Sr Pub Chairs for the Class of '93 Social Chairs. Our goal is to make Senior Week a time all of us can enjoy ourselves without being too serious. I plan to do everything I can to promote this in the past, it seems to me that there has been a lack of understanding and correspondence between students and their government. At the end of each year, I would like to do something about this. What are the results? Next year, one of my goals will be to follow up on these promises and make sure we are not making promises we cannot keep. I plan to encourage more events and activities directly involving the students.

Leila Tabibian

Hi! My name is Leila Tabibian and I'm running for the Class of 1993 Social Chairman. I have been on the Class Council for one year as an Social Co-Chair and have gained a good sense of the types of activities that are successful at MIT. I am eager to help plan more of these events and will promise to do so if elected to this office.

CLASS OF 1993

PRESIDENT

Yvonne Lin
The duties of Senior Class President are plentiful. There are projects to attend to, money to raise, and correspondence to write — just to name a few. The most obvious projects include the Junior/Senior Pub, the Career Fairs, the coordination of the Senior Gift, and the participation in the Commencement Committee.

I plan to perform these tasks very well. My predecessor, the Senior Class President must possess several qualities. The Senior Class President must realize and fulfill the enormous time commitment inherent in such a position. I am fully aware of this time commitment and am willing and ready to fulfill it. If the Senior Class President must be extremely hard working and must successfully execute all the duties as prompt, the person must demonstrate that she will get things done. I believe that I have demonstrated my ability through my past involvement with class council and other activities.

Getting things done involves not only doing things, but also ensuring the help of other class members. We all know that our senior year is perhaps our most important year in our MIT experience and we want to have a memorable year. We shall need the help of all our classmates to accomplish this goal.

May Nasrallah

With all the people running for Class President, why should you vote for me?

Over the past three years, I have been quietly building my reputation as a capable student leader. I have helped fund, and am currently President of the Student Alumni Association. I have also held other positions of responsibility such as President of the Lehman Club, Project Coordinator Committee, Associate President Tisch Dance, and Coordinator, RSO Coordinator.

Next year will be our final year at MIT, and it should be a time of reflection and growth. We cannot allow five years of growth to be wasted. I propose that we bring our class together in an organized way. I have organized this through my past involvement with class council and other activities.

Sridhara Venkatesh

The way I see it, the Class of 1993 needs an officer who will be dedicated to the intellectual growth of this class. We can walk away with so many wonderful memories and a great feeling of accomplishment. I am dedicated to the intellectual growth of the class. As the Senior Class President, I will help ensure that the members of the Class of 1993 are able to utilize the Institute in the most effective manner.

Valee Gafori & Queen Chu

Hi! We are Valee and Queen Chu, two of your Jr/Sr Pub Chairs for the Class of '93 Social Chairs. Our goal is to make Senior Week a time all of us can enjoy ourselves without being too serious. I plan to do everything I can to promote this.

Leila Tabibian

Hi! My name is Leila Tabibian and I'm running for the Class of 1993 Social Chairman. I have been on the Class Council for one year as an Social Co-Chair and have gained a good sense of the types of activities that are successful at MIT. I am eager to help plan more of these events and will promise to do so if elected to this office.

CLASS OF 1994

VICE PRESIDENT

Lily Datta

I am running for Vice President of the Class of '94. I plan to work closely with the officers to help improve relations not only between the Class of '94 and the class of '93 but also among the individuals in the class as well. I feel that by organizing events in community service, social functions, career fairs, etc. which will help to grow the class, we can further the goals of the Class of '94. The Vice President of the Class of '93, I want to play a major role in reinvigorating the spirit of our senior year.

Treasurer

Catherine Downard

Our junior year should be looked upon as an opportunity to not only improve our GPA but also to have a chance to learn, get to know our fellow classmates, and take full advantage of the wonderful MIT life. As Treasurer of the Class of '94, I plan to do everything I can to promote this.

In the past, it seems to me that there has been a lack of understanding and correspondence between students and their government. At the end of each year, I would like to do something about this. What are the results? Next year, one of my goals will be to follow up on these promises and make sure we are not making promises we cannot keep. I plan to encourage more events and activities directly involving the students.

John Bellizzi

The upcoming year will be memorable for the Class of '94. We are on the threshold of reaching the halfway point of our undergraduate careers. It is time for us to pull it all together as a class and look toward the future we can benefit from the experience of our classmates and seniors. The main concern of the junior class is the future. My primary concern will be effective communication. The class needs to be aware of and involved in the government, and the leadership needs feedback and interaction. It is the class's enthusiastic participation in campus activities that is extremely important. We will have an opportunity to demonstrate our effectiveness and commitment to the Class of '94.

Secretary

Reshma Patel

Hey Class of '94! I've been responsible for getting the news out about Class of '94 activities this past year and publishing our monthly newsletter. It's been fun for all of you probably if you know how I've read the Class of '94 Newsletter or attended any of our events. I'd like to continue to serve you, my fellow Class of '94, as President. We are situated in the middle of yet another successful year. I am looking forward to being your president for the next year and continuing to achieve the goals that we have set. I promise to keep you well-informed of the "most fun" class to ever attend the institute. Most of all, I hope to encourage even greater classwide participation and make next year our best yet at MIT.

Roderick Trammell

Why do I think that I should be the president of the class of '94? The answer is that I know I have the traits that this job requires. The upcoming senior class needs a person who has the time to put in to office, the desire and enthusiasm to run an exciting and fulfilling senior year, the ability and responsibility to lead the class, and the coordination and determination to see that the class is ready to face the entering seniors who only have a few weeks to plan for the Institute. I want to be president so that I can have more close friends involved in the class, that we can have more opportunities to plan our own events. I want to see us have a Senior Week that we will not forget.

Sophia Yen

I am well qualified for this problem. I have maintained high grades while serving as a Class of '93 Social Chair, and have a great deal of experience in student government. I would also have the ability to promote more events and activities directly involving the students.

Leila Tabibian

Hi! My name is Leila Tabibian and I'm running for the Class of 1993 Social Chairman. I have been on the Class Council for one year as an Social Co-Chair and have gained a good sense of the types of activities that are successful at MIT. I am eager to help plan more of these events and will promise to do so if elected to this office.