SEASICK about your FUTURE?
Join the MetLife crew and launch a successful career in financial services.

If you’re highly motivated and fluent in one or more Asian languages, come and explore career options at MetLife in Boston on April 17th and 18th.

MetLife is a pioneer and leader in serving the financial needs of the growing Asian-American Community and offers exceptional opportunities to retarded Asian-language-speaking individuals, many of whom have already moved into high-ranking positions.

- Comprehensive training system
- Terrific earning potential (Base salary can reach $800/wk.)
- Top-quality investment products
- Executive training programs available to qualified individuals

MetLife has unparalleled recession-proof stability, continuing to grow even through times of economic uncertainty.

Come aboard on April 17th, 18th and drop anchor with one of the world’s largest and most respected financial institutions. Reserve your berth now by sending your resume to:

Jay Mahr, Marketing Manager
MetLife, Northeastern Territory
25 Madison Avenue, Area 5W
New York, NY 10159
or calling 617-279-0318 no later than April 10, 1992.

Don’t miss the boat!
In Real Japanese, Enjoie.

The Political Science Department Presents the film
"ALL THE KING’S MEN"
A film classic about corruption in the political arena
Tuesday, March 17, 7:10 PM
6-120 Bigdwez*ap Late of FOODD
Event doubles as Course 17 Open House
Students interested in discussing the upcoming election, foreign policy issues and Course 17 come between 7-8.
Film shown at 8:00