The 1992 Carroll L. Wilson Awards

4 Awards Planned:
- 2 Graduate Student Awards at $5,000 each, and
- 2 Undergraduate Student Awards at $4,000 each.

These awards have been established as a memorial to the late Carroll L. Wilson (32) Professor of Management at the Sloan School and first MIT Sloan Professor in Problems of Contemporary Technology at MIT.

Professor Wilson devoted much of his career toward investigating solutions to important global problems through the application of scientific, engineering, economic, and political analysis to programs of action. The underlying goal of his work was the improvement of relations among countries and the strengthening of their institutions and people.

The purpose of the Wilson Awards is to provide opportunities for MIT students to pursue a challenging activity which will have excited the interest and enthusiasm of Carroll Wilson.

The prizes will be awarded to students in any department at MIT on the basis of a competitive evaluation of proposals by a Prize Committee.

Application deadline date: March 30, 1992
