You've been in Cambridge for six months and you still haven't eaten at the S&S?

You'd probably be embarrassed to know we're just around the corner in Inman Square. We've been there since 1919...you will achieve results with SBC/OCT Services LP.

Don't Miss The Most Exciting Event To Happen In 6-120...
Wednesday, October 14, 1992, 7-9 pm

You've worked hard...
Excellent academically...
Achieved results...
Now it's time to trade up...

If you possess exceptional analytical talent...want to work with sophisticated technology...and thrive on complex intellectual challenges...you will achieve results with SBC/OCT.

Currently a joint venture between the O'Connor Partners and Swiss Bank Corporation, we specialize in foreign exchange, interest rates, and Japanese and European equity derivative instruments. SBC/OCT has announced its intention to fully integrate into Swiss Bank Corporation's Capital Markets and Treasury Business, which will result in an innovative, client-focused organization poised for global leadership across the full range of financial risk management products and services. We want to meet you! Learn more about our innovative firm at our presentation in 6-120 on October 14th. For more information, contact the Office of Career Planning and Placement. If you plan to attend, direct your resume to: SBC/OCT Services LP, Attn: Professional Recruitment, 141 W. Jackson, Chicago, IL 60604. Equal Opportunity Employer MA/20

Let's Argue: The Sporting World

This is the first in a series of weekly columns called "Let's Argue." Each week we will express our opinions on the sporting world, at MIT and elsewhere. Those of you who have questions, complaints, or poems that you want shared, please drop us a line at sportsetheory@tech.mit.edu.

Quinn et al. must go! Clearly not Hector Camacho, who was convincingly pounded by Julio Cefer Chavez. Camacho, decked in his. Rambo-styled fringed loin cloth, was beaten in a 12-round decision by Chavez. The "Big Easy" ended up most pound for pound. If\r\n\r\nI
