Women Outrun Regis, Fall Behind Wellesley

By Agnieszka Reisz

In its closest meet so far this fall, the MIT women's cross country team beat Regis College soundly, but last to Wellesley by one point at the Wellesley College Invitational meet last Friday afternoon.

The MIT women performed well as four of them finished the rain-soaked five-kilometer course in the top seven places.

The team rode home in good spirits, knowing they had run well on a course which had not only hill immediately before the finish line.

Tranum Breaks Own Record

By Roger Croaley

Football

Football reception records continue to fall as the hands of Bobby Tranum '93. Tranum caught nine balls in a 19-21 loss to Stonehill on Saturday. The nine catches broke his own 1991 single season record of 18 catches. He also broke the MIT career record for receiving yardage by topping his total to 1,518 yards. Anthony Lapes '90 held the previous record.

Quarterback Alix Sgouros '95 has led the Institute record for pass attempts in a season. Sgouros has thrown the ball 145 times thus far in 1992.

Inside linebacker Nolan Duffins '94 has twice been honored in the last two weeks. Duffins was named to the Eastern College Athletic Conference New England Division III Weekly Honor Roll for his play in a 12-31 loss to Westfield State. He was also named co-defensive player of the week in the Eastern Collegiate Football Conference for his play in the Stonehill game.

Volleyball

Setter Celeen Kaiser '94 was recently named to the all-tournament team at the Eastern Connecticut State University Invitational Tournament. This is the third all-tournament team in which Kaiser has been named this season.

Soccer

The women's soccer team's 10-0 win this season ties the squad's record for the most wins in a single season. The 1991 team also won 10 games en route to a 15-6-2 record.

Artila Lengyel '94 of the men's soccer team had an awesome day last Saturday. Lengyel scored all four of M.I.T.'s goals in a 4-1 victory over Western New England College.

This space donated by The Tech