Squash Trounces Fordham 9–0

By Ashok Shanam

MIT’s squash team swept this past Saturday’s meet against Fordham University, ranked 15th in the country, by a score of 9–0. Trevithick’s G match was the most exciting of the meet. Known for his incredible hard shots, Trevithick’s match turned into a high-paced slugfest. Trevithick has one last year to win the first title. The match started out well with a 7–0 lead in the first game. At that point, most of the other matches came to an end and both teams came to cheer on their respective number one’s for the fourth game. Trevithick continued to add extra on the first and a lead a successful match. The score was zero-zero after one and all match until Trevithick finally was able to clinch the game. The last game, Trevithick and the squad provided by the spectators, unleashed his serve and ability to win. After this match, Trevithick had a record of 9–3. Overall, he finished off an overall excellent team effort with 5–1 victories.

By Mark Hurst

The fencing teams had a tough weekend. After each squad lost to Princeton University on the morning of Jan. 31, only the men’s sabre team managed a victory. At Brandeis University later in the day. The women’s team lost 1–5 to Princeton despite the fact that Sara Ontiveros ’93, team captain, won a contest. What was really considerable was the third match won by Karin Wenzel and Kay Quintero. The third match was the most exciting of the meet. Known for his incredible hard shots, Wenzel and Quintero were able to clinch the game. In the last round, Trevithick and the squad provided by the spectators, unleashed his serve and ability to win. After this match, Trevithick had a record of 9–3. Overall, he finished off an overall excellent team effort with 5–1 victories.

By Ashok Shanam

MIT’s squash team swept this past Saturday’s meet against Fordham University, ranked 15th in the country, by a score of 9–0. Trevithick’s G match was the most exciting of the meet. Known for his incredibly hard shots, Trevithick’s match turned into a high-paced slugfest. Trevithick has one last year to win the first title. The match started out well with a 7–0 lead in the first game. At that point, most of the other matches came to an end and both teams came to cheer on their respective number one’s for the fourth game. Trevithick continued to add extra on the first and a lead a successful match. The score was zero-zero after one and all match until Trevithick finally was able to clinch the game. The last game, Trevithick and the squad provided by the spectators, unleashed his serve and ability to win. After this match, Trevithick had a record of 9–3. Overall, he finished off an overall excellent team effort with 5–1 victories.

Public Finance?

If you have an interest in a two year investment banking analyst program and are also interested in broad public policy issues, national and regional infrastructure development initiatives, and financing capital needs for states, cities, mass transportation systems, not-for-profit institutions, etc., consider Morgan Stanley’s Public Finance Group. More information is available at the Office of Career Services.

Mail Resume and Cover Letter to:

Patricia Palumbo
Public Finance Recruiting Manager
Morgan Stanley & Co.
1251 Avenue of the Americas
New York, N.Y. 10020

Postmark by February 12

MORGAN STANLEY & CO. PUBLIC FINANCE
Investment Bankers to the Public Sector