UNFORTUNATELY, THIS IS WHERE PEOPLE ARE PUTTING TOO MANY RETIREMENT DOLLARS.

Every year, a lot of people make a huge mistake on their taxes. They don't take advantage of tax deferred and wind up sending Uncle Sam money they could be saving for retirement.

Fortunately, that's a mistake you can easily avoid with TIAA-CREF SRAs. SRAs not only ease your current tax bite, they offer a remarkably easy way to build retirement income—especially for the "tax-exempt" that your regular pension and Social Security benefits may not cover. Because your contributions are made in before-tax dollars, you pay less taxes now. And since all earnings on your SRA are tax-deferred as well, the money you don't send to Washington works even harder for you. Down the road, that can make a dramatic difference in your quality of life.

What else makes SRAs so special? A range of allocation choices—from the guaranteed security of TIAA to the diversified investment accounts of CREF's variable annuity—all backed by the nation's number one retirement system.

Why write off the chance for a more rewarding retirement? Call today and learn more about how TIAA-CREF SRAs can help you enjoy many happy returns.

UA's Judicial Board Helps Students, Too

By Kevin Subramanyan

Not only will the Undergraduate Association's Judicial Review Board interpret the UA constitution and resolve problems within the UA, it also would like to see the board broaden its purpose to help the general student population.

The memorandum continues: "Finally, once people become more familiar with the function of the Judicial Board, we would like to see advocates for undergraduates in dealing with the administration if they have a hard time doing it themselves."

Students using the service will be allowed anonymity. "Some students may feel uncomfortable with MIT administration and would rather talk to a fellow student when they have a complaint," Godfrey explained.

"I'm glad this new improvement was carried through," Godfrey said. "Students really need a service like this available to them." Mukherji added.

The board is going to work on publicity so students are aware of its services, Mukherji said.

The board is going to work on publicity so students are aware of its services, Mukherji said. Current members of the JudBoard are Godfrey, Mukherji, and J. Paul Kirby '92, but the UA Nominations Committee will be appointing two new student members, Godfrey said.

Currently, Godfrey and Kirby are on leave from the board because of their involvement with the upcoming election, Mukherji said.
