Arenson, Corporation Member and Journalist, to Speak

Karen W. Arenson '70, the editor of the Sunday business section of The New York Times and a member of the MIT Corporation, will speak this Friday at 3 p.m. in the west lounge of the Student Center. Refreshments will be served and all members of the community are invited to attend.

Because space is limited, please call The Tech at x3-1541 or send e-mail to general@the-tech.mit.edu if you plan to attend.

Join the fight against hunger.
Here's your weapon.

Our goal? To help buy 1,000,000 meals* for America's hungry And you can take part just by using the American Express Card.

You see, each time you charge a purchase to the Card between March 15 and April 30, 1993, you help pay for one meal. The more purchases you make, no matter how big or small, the more meals you help provide. It's that simple.

To make it all work, we've teamed up with Share Our Strength, a nationwide non-profit organization fighting to end hunger. They're doing it in some very resourceful ways.

For example, most restaurants have extra food at the end of the night, but they don't always know what to do with it. SOS does. They see it that the food is delivered to those who need it. In fact, they've mobilized more than 5000 restaurants to join the fight against hunger, here in the U.S. and around the world.

So remember, now one of the most valuable reasons to use the Card isn't for what you can get, but for what you give.

If you're not currently a Cardmember, but would like to apply, please call us at 1-800-565-AMEX.

The American Express Card.
When you reach for it, you reach out to help others.

*SOS Express will donate $0.99 per transaction, up to $90,000, a maximum of 1,000,000 meals. Donation is not deductible for income tax purposes.
