Sports

Gymnasts Compete in ECAC

On Friday, March 5, the women's varsity team traveled south to the New England Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) Women's Gymnastics Championships held at SUNY Brockport last weekend.

The Lady Blades finished second in the team event behind Princeton in any sport, and it is now in its 65th season. The events included the floor exercise, vault, uneven bars, and balance beam.

The Lady Blades only lost a total of 12 points to Princeton. Once again the vault was the team's top event. The team ended the season with a 1-4 record to finish sixth place overall.

The Lady Blades finished second in the event behind Princeton after defeating 11 other schools.

The East Coast Invitational was held at Harvard University. The teams included Cornell, Princeton, Wesleyan, Tufts, Brown, and Yale.

The Lady Blades competed in the first-ever women's epee competition at the NEWIFA Championships. Nine swimmers qualified for the Division III National Championships at the University of Wisconsin at River Falls on March 6.

The Lady Blades were Co-Captain Pfautz who entered three events and had a 1 1/2 twist-son of "no falls ever" in a routine totaling 7.45. Oda received her top scores this season on the bars where she dismounted from a full-twisting dismount for a score of 7.5. Lyren, Sollod, and Carmel, who both performed different ribbon and jump and bar routines, were the standouts of the Day 2 meet.

Another great performance for the team was Co-Captain Pfautz who once again proved herself to be one of the best swimmers in New England. Pfautz finished in the top eight in everything she swam including a first place finish in the 200-yard butterfly. Another strong swimmer in the meet was Goo who showed her versatility by placing in both the 200-yard individual medley and the 300-yard breaststroke.

The floor exercise debuted a back-handspring and a front somersault dismount, while Beth Chen received a 7.05 for her performance on the bars. Despite a fall on the last difficult jump of her routine, she still earned a 6.55 for her dismount.

The floor exercise debuted a back-handspring and a front somersault dismount, while Beth Chen received a 7.05 for her performance on the bars. Despite a fall on the last difficult jump of her routine, she still earned a 6.55 for her dismount.

Season Ends Well For Women Swimmers

By Marulla Bratsikos

The women's swimming team ended its season well, finishing 11th among the 31 teams at the New England Swimming and Diving Championships.

The team's best event was the butterfly. The 200-yard medley relay of Lyren, Sollod, and Carmel, who both performed different ribbon and jump and bar routines, were the standouts of the Day 2 meet.

Another great performance for the team was Co-Captain Pfautz who once again proved herself to be one of the best swimmers in New England. Pfautz finished in the top eight in everything she swam including a first place finish in the 200-yard butterfly. Another strong swimmer in the meet was Goo who showed her versatility by placing in both the 200-yard individual medley and the 300-yard breaststroke.

Another great performance for the team was Goo who showed her versatility by placing in both the 200-yard individual medley and the 300-yard breaststroke. By having fast swims in the freestyle relays, Goo showed how well the team did, said captain Pfautz.

The Lady Blades were Co-Captain Pfautz who once again proved herself to be one of the best swimmers in New England. Pfautz finished in the top eight in everything she swam including a first place finish in the 200-yard butterfly. Another strong swimmer in the meet was Goo who showed her versatility by placing in both the 200-yard individual medley and the 300-yard breaststroke. By having fast swims in the freestyle relays, Goo showed how well the team did, said captain Pfautz.

Another strong swimmer in the meet was Goo who showed her versatility by placing in both the 200-yard individual medley and the 300-yard breaststroke. By having fast swims in the freestyle relays, Goo showed how well the team did, said captain Pfautz.

Another strong swimmer in the meet was Goo who showed her versatility by placing in both the 200-yard individual medley and the 300-yard breaststroke. By having fast swims in the freestyle relays, Goo showed how well the team did, said captain Pfautz.

Another strong swimmer in the meet was Goo who showed her versatility by placing in both the 200-yard individual medley and the 300-yard breaststroke. By having fast swims in the freestyle relays, Goo showed how well the team did, said captain Pfautz.

Another strong swimmer in the meet was Goo who showed her versatility by placing in both the 200-yard individual medley and the 300-yard breaststroke. By having fast swims in the freestyle relays, Goo showed how well the team did, said captain Pfautz.

Another strong swimmer in the meet was Goo who showed her versatility by placing in both the 200-yard individual medley and the 300-yard breaststroke. By having fast swims in the freestyle relays, Goo showed how well the team did, said captain Pfautz.