Class of 1995

Sandy Young

As president, I would like to continue the status quo of our government. I want to promote class unity and class spirit in all our activities. Our class should be together by having class study breaks, picnics, seminars, formal and semiformal dances, and other activities. I think all of these activities can be implemented if we are able to raise funds properly. My high school experience as a senior class president, student council president, and Junior Class Council president, combined with my experiences as an MIT student will enable me to be a very effective class president. I see myself as an agent of change for the past, present, and future of our class.

Soo Young Lee

As class president, I would like to continue the tradition of our class presidency. I feel that there are other problems that student involvement can solve, and I want to work towards the general benefit of our class. I will make sure that our class presidency will be more involved in the administration of the class gift, and I will help address any problems that arise in the class gift. I want our class presidency to be more involved with the Undergraduate Association, and the Student Senate so that we can have a more unified representation of the class.

Jay Sarkar

I will get the class moving. My plan:
1) Semiformal dinner
2) Formal dance
3) Food party

Michael R. Ervans

Sophomores, ask yourselves this question: "What can Harvard offer you that is better than Harvard?" I hope it will be a question that you would be willing to bet that the answer is either nothing or very little. I bet you don't even know what the class treasury looks like. I want very much to change that. I know from personal experience that the information about the few events that were held before was held dear to the members of our class who were part of it. I want to make sure that all of our officers were really used and that I could contribute a great deal to the office. I can handle the extra work and I believe that I could do it very well.

J. Morgan Slade

As a two-year incumbent in the office of vice president, I am very familiar with the status of the position. To date, it is my responsibility to oversee the activities of the Class Council, the Undergraduate Association, and the Student Senate. My job is to be the direct link between you and your class government. While Frances knows the ropes, Dave brings new ideas, input, and enthusiasm to the office. I will help you to make something happen! Take the challenge and help me make our senior year a year to remember.

Kalen Yang

Hi, my name is Kalen Yang, and I'd like you to consider me for the position of class council president. After a year and a half of contemplation and confusion, I have finally decided on the events of my life. I plan to work towards increasing class spirit over the past two years has enabled me to get to know many people here at MIT. As a member of the community, I am active within the Greek community and participate in sorority activities such as philanthropy and community service. In the future, I plan to work with the MIT community as a whole, in particular with the Undergraduate Association and the Student Senate. I am the direct link between you and your class government. Communication between the class council and the class is crucial for a successful year to come. If elected secretary of the class of 1995, I will act as a liaison between our class and the council. I will do so by keeping in touch with our classmates, by discussing and by admitting occasional moments of silence. My balance of insight includes 3) Take the challenge and help me make our senior year a year to remember.

Frances Haich & David Lee

Publicly is the direct link between you and your class government. Frances has been that link for the last two years, handling the office of publicity chair. Jennifer Chu & Rama Chiruvolu

We are interested in serving as the publicity chair for the class of 1995. Through our efforts in community marketing, we will help to motivate more students to participate in our activities. Our increased attendance will put the other classes to shame.

Laura Vojvodich & Sabrina Kwon

Promoting class unity and spirit, providing diversion from academic stress, and creating a social atmosphere — that's what social chairs are all about. Leaving been on Class Council for the past year as social chair and treasurer, we have the experience and effort required for this position and hope that you will support us in our campaign to serve you as the class of '95 social chairs.

Alumni Council, such as the Student Telephone and reunions. For the past two years, I have organized the Valentine's Day and Winter Formal, both of which have been big successes. I am very much interested in working with the class of '93 and the Alumni Office to help organize an incredible fifth-year reunion.

Jennifer Chu

In the past year as the publicity chair, I have had the opportunity to work very closely with our classmates on the class gift. I have also been the publicity chair for the class of '93, and I have been involved in the planning and execution of various events. I think that my experiences as a member of the class gift and the class council will be very useful in helping me to make our senior year a year to remember.
