Country, class, community, clique: We live in many worlds. How we relate to them can define our politics, our prejudices and our predicaments.

That's the theme of "IN AND OUT OF PLACE: Contemporary Art and the American Social Landscape," at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. AT&T invites you to see America through the socially astute eyes of some leading sculptors, photographers and painters, and discover for yourself how who we are is shaped by where we are.

For us at AT&T, the ability of these artists to reflect such issues through their work mirrors our own commitment to innovation, in the arts and in technology.
