Exceptional solos highlight concert

Jazz, from Page 8

There were exceptions, of course. Ali Azarbayejani G, on flugelhorn, and Damon Bramble '97, on tenor sax, played a sweet duet in Kurt Weill's "Leidseplein," arranged by Fabio Morgenza. The piece featured this duo, who seized the opportunity to demonstrate a sensitivity that would have gone unnoticed in their regular parts. Azarbayejani treated the audience to a rich, gentle solo, and Bramble answered with an agitated drive toward the band's resolution of the theme.

Two more welcome surprises came during "Lola," set to the music of show tunes from the musical."A Room with a View." This rearranged piece featured this dynamic duo, with a classical interlude between the numbers. A gentle duet by the pianist Douglas, whose subtlety and skill at the keyboard heightened the entire set, and trombonist Eric Schierz G was the freshest expression of the evening.

Then, after the typical loud band statement, the piece ended with the usual hollering, instead resolving in an introspective soprano sax solo by Susan Ward G. For fans of big jazz, the Festival Jazz Ensemble will appear at the Middle East at 9 p.m. on Dec. 6 with the Harvard Jazz Band.

The largest sperm bank in the United States is looking for donors.

The goal of the Cambridge California Cryobank, Inc. is to provide high quality sperm for artificial insemination. Requirements include good health, between the ages of 19 to 34, and a 9 to 12 month commitment.

Call for more information: 497-8646

COMPLETE MEDICAL SCREENING (ALL COSTS PAID) AND YOU EARN UP TO $105/WEEK IF QUALIFIED

William E. Simon
Graduate School of Business Administration University of Rochester • Ph.D. Program

- Excellent placement at the nation's leading business schools
- Generous year-round financial support
- Application fee waived for GMAT/700 average GRE (Quant/Verbal)

The program is distinguished by its breadth of training and dynamic interdisciplinary communication among faculty and students. Fields of specialization include: Accounting, Applied Statistics, Computers and Information Systems, Finance, Information Systems Economics, Microeconomics, Management Science, Marketing, Operations Management, and Organizations and Markets.

The faculty, the academic reputation, and the well of resources are internationally recognized, with a tradition of applying economic and quantitative methodology to a broad range of management issues and problems.

Placement. Since its inception in 1965, the Simon School Ph.D. Program has placed a higher proportion of its graduates at top-20 business schools than any other Ph.D. program.

Eligibility. Candidates must have a bachelor's degree, and take the GMAT or GRE exam. Special fellowships are available for U.S. citizens. For a current catalog or further information, call or write to:

Lynne M. Mitchell, Ph.D. Program Assistant
William E. Simon Graduate School of Business Administration University of Rochester Rochester, N.Y. 14627-0105 • (716) 275-2995

Deadline for applications is February 15, 1994

The University of Rochester provides equal opportunity in admissions and student and employment of men, women, color, creed, handicap, sexual orientation, and nation or ethnic origin. Further, the University complies with all applicable nondiscrimination laws.