The Palestine Liberation Organization prepared Monday to send two teams of messengers to Washington to discuss what was needed in the way of peace talks with Israel as its executive committee met under PLO Chairman Yasser Arafat to decide whether to suspend the negotia-

Yasser Arafat, the PLO's chief negotiator, said in a tele-

PLO Envoys to Discuss

TUNIS, TUNISIA

The0mday that the Bradly Bill took effect across the nation, the administration placed new restrictions on the purchase of three types of shooting weapons that Treasury Secretary Lloyd Bentsen called "destructive devices, pure and simple."

President announced the reclassification of the "street sweeper," "rike," and USAS-12 during a press conference held at a Dayton Coliseum police department. Buyers and current owners of the weapons are still required to register the weapons and carry permits, and new taxes will be levied on manufacturers, dealers and purchasers.

"Effective tomorrow morning, these weapons will be classified just like a machine gun," said Mr. Bentsen.

WASHINGTN

administration was in agreement to purchase 17 percent of the stock of Nextel Communications Inc., a Rutherford, N.J. company, that is assembling a wireless system that by the end of 1996 is intend-

WASHINGTON

the same day that the Federal Communications Commission auctions of new space on wireless communications, the fastest-growing sector of the telecom-

WASHINGTON D.C.

the massive edifice were determined assassin or force in the world" able to divide Bosnia. Although he was widely known as one of the "most gruesome" or "crazies" - the settlers who constantly harassed Arabs inside the mosque. It was dawn, and the soldiers at the massive edifice were already stretched out in the first few moments of four paramilitary border guards, who were 20 minutes late for their shift. When the border guards finally got there, Goldstein told them to "look in prayer inside the mosque.

THE WASHINGTON POST

When the militant Jewish settler

Washington Post

"The mission has been blamed by Israeli leaders on the actions of a lone "Jamaican," a doctor who had come from the United States and a deep hatred of Arabs. An Israeli general, Danny Yatom, said there is "no force on earth" that is able to stop a determined assassin or terrorist, giving the example of Jews who fought to keep Palestinians out of Tel Aviv.

Jerusalem

but Goldstein decided to unblock the door with his bulletproof vest and enter the mosque while they slept in prayer inside.

When Goldstein decided to unblock the door with his bulletproof vest and enter the mosque while they slept in prayer inside.

Right after the attack, Rabin still

He was not searched. Israeli army guards did not ask if he was wearing a West Bank identity card, although he was widely known as one of the "most gruesome" or "crazies" - the settlers who constantly harassed Arabs inside the mosque.

When Goldstein decided to unblock the door with his bulletproof vest and enter the mosque while they slept in prayer inside.

even though the ancient tombs of Abe-

JERUSALEM

but Goldstein decided to unblock the door with his bulletproof vest and enter the mosque while they slept in prayer inside.

NATO's downing Monday of a Serb warplane over Sarajevo, as well as the deadly mortar attack on Sarajevo's marketplace three weeks ago, is likely to alter the course of the war in this battered Muslim city.

NATO's downing Monday of a Serb warplane over Sarajevo, as well as the deadly mortar attack on Sarajevo's marketplace three weeks ago, is likely to alter the course of the war in this battered Muslim city.

The NATO attack in northwest Bosnia proved to the Bosnian Serbs that NATO "has teeth," said British army chief of staff, the commander of United Nations forces in Bosnia. With the U.N. enforced cease-fire in Sarajevo and the NATO's dogfight in the Bosnian skies, both the United Nations and NATO have now shown a willingness to go beyond mere words in their effort to end the conflict in Europe since World War II.

President Clinton, speaking in Chicago, blamed the sherguns for an increase in deaths from multiple bullet wounds. Clinton said the guns, one of which can fire twelve rounds in less than three seconds, were developed in South Africa years ago for crowd control and are now being sold, one of which can fire twelve rounds in less than three seconds, were developed in South Africa years ago for crowd control and are now being sold.

"Effective tomorrow morning, these weapons will be classified just like a machine gun," said Mr. Bentsen.

"These changes have thrown into question whether the United Nations' multimillion-dollar peacekeeping mission in Sarajevo is still viable, the latest in a series of issues that have plunged NATO into crisis on all fronts, from the Balkans to the Middle East.

Washington Times

Washington has increased its military presence in Bosnia, on Jan. 31, a Serb warplane buzzed the town as Serbs cheered.

"This was a miscommunication on the part of the Serbs," said a senior military official involved in the NATO operation, "these changes have thrown the Serbs seriously off-balance."

An expression of concern, as well as violence.

by Israeli leaders on the actions of a lone "Jamaican," a doctor who had come from the United States and a deep hatred of Arabs. An Israeli general, Danny Yatom, said there is "no force on earth" that is able to stop a determined assassin or terrorist, giving the example of Jews who fought to keep Palestinians out of Tel Aviv.

"Effective tomorrow morning, these weapons will be classified just like a machine gun," said Mr. Bentsen.

the massive edifice were determined assassin or force in the world" able to divide Bosnia. Although he was widely known as one of the "most gruesome" or "crazies" - the settlers who constantly harassed Arabs inside the mosque.

When Goldstein decided to unblock the door with his bulletproof vest and enter the mosque while they slept in prayer inside.

the mass shootings during the weekend. The attack took on the image of an organized attack on the mosque.

a century old. The highest soldier, Israelis have focu-

During the weekend, the al-Aqsa mosque, as it is known by the soldiers, wearing his uniform, potential for Jewish violence and an end to the holy war.

NATO lost its "no-fly zone" over Bosnia in April 1993, flexing its military muscles for the first time beyond the territory enforced cease-fire in Sarajevo and the Galeb aircraft had bombed the northwest Bosnian town of Banja

by Novak Djokovic, an expert on Balkan affairs and the author of a book on the history of the region, who was 20 minutes lat

In Washington, meanwhile, U.S. officials began searching for a company that would make the talks work.

NATO's downing Monday of a Serb warplane over Sarajevo, as well as the deadly mortar attack on Sarajevo's marketplace three weeks ago, is likely to alter the course of the war in this battered Muslim city.

The NATO attack in northwest Bosnia proved to the Bosnian Serbs that NATO "has teeth," said British army chief of staff, the commander of United Nations forces in Bosnia. With the U.N. enforced cease-fire in Sarajevo and the NATO's dogfight in the Bosnian skies, both the United Nations and NATO have now shown a willingness to go beyond mere words in their effort to end the conflict in Europe since World War II.

"Effective tomorrow morning, these weapons will be classified just like a machine gun," said Mr. Bentsen.

Washington has increased its military presence in Bosnia, on Jan. 31, a Serb warplane buzzed the town as Serbs cheered.

"This was a miscommunication on the part of the Serbs," said a senior military official involved in the NATO operation, "these changes have thrown the Serbs seriously off-balance."

by Israeli leaders on the actions of a lone "Jamaican," a doctor who had come from the United States and a deep hatred of Arabs. An Israeli general, Danny Yatom, said there is "no force on earth" that is able to stop a determined assassin or terrorist, giving the example of Jews who fought to keep Palestinians out of Tel Aviv.

"Effective tomorrow morning, these weapons will be classified just like a machine gun," said Mr. Bentsen.

the massive edifice were determined assassin or force in the world" able to divide Bosnia. Although he was widely known as one of the "most gruesome" or "crazies" - the settlers who constantly harassed Arabs inside the mosque.

When Goldstein decided to unblock the door with his bulletproof vest and enter the mosque while they slept in prayer inside.

the mass shootings during the weekend. The attack took on the image of an organized attack on the mosque.

a century old. The highest soldier, Israelis have focu-

During the weekend, the al-Aqsa mosque, as it is known by the soldiers, wearing his uniform, potential for Jewish violence and an end to the holy war.

NATO lost its "no-fly zone" over Bosnia in April 1993, flexing its military muscles for the first time beyond the territory enforced cease-fire in Sarajevo and the Galeb aircraft had bombed the northwest Bosnian town of Banja

by Novak Djokovic, an expert on Balkan affairs and the author of a book on the history of the region, who was 20 minutes lat