PRESIDENT

Matthew Mucklo
The question you should be asking now that your second year at MIT is almost at hand is, "What has my class done for me so far, and what MORE can I do for our sophomore year?" Next year will be as good as you make it. You could have more frequent study breaks with live food and music. You could have class T-shirts and boxes, and a Fall/Winter Formal. You could even have more frequent class newsletters delivered to your mailbox, a class button, and class-digital-floor representatives. In other words, you could have a great year and a lot of fun, so it's up to the right person to lead your class. If you vote for Matt Mucklo, he'll get the job done.

Craig M. Robinson
I do not wish to bore you with political jargon or convoluted promises, I simply want you to know that I am dedicated, enthusiastic, and take the position of president very seriously. As the freshman class president, I was very experienced with the other class officers in bringing study breaks, T-shirts, sweatshirts, the AHS Dance, and Screw Your Roommate. I have a great job in the class of '97, and we are truly glad for the opportunity of being on the 1997 Class Council as co-publicity chair this year. We hope to gain your support once again so that we can continue to keep you informed and to touch next year. Keep the class of '97 spirit alive! Chen for Publicity!

Vice-President

Pardis (Dee) Sabeti
I was my class president all through high school, and therefore, have experience at this position. I am enthusiastic and would like to get a more active student government and a more informed class. Some of my ideas are an e-mail account for those members of our class that want to be informed and in touch next year. Keep the class of '97 spirit alive!

Kori Bevans
Hi, I'm really looking forward to running for the Vice-President of our class. In High School, I was a executive member of the New Jersey State Student Council (NJASC '97) and a

Treasurer

Lisa Ho
As Treasurer, for the past year, I have obtained a two thousand dollar loan for the Class of '97. With this money, the class council and I were able to raise money and thus organise activities, such as study breaks, cultural shock, and Fresments Only Week. We have also formed committees to handle the monetary procedures for the class. I will continue to efficiently fulfill the duties of the Treasurer, and with the experience that I have gained this past year, I will better represent the Class of '97.

Secretary

Christina Hsu
If you want someone whose cheery and fun, re-elect Christina for Secretary. This year has been filled with events that were new, such as a freshman class sweatshirt & sweat only week too! Please vote for someone who'll get the job done.

Publicity Chair

Amy Kimura
We are truly glad for the opportunity of being on the 1997 Class Council as co-publicity chair this year. We hope to gain your support once again so that we can continue to keep you informed and to touch next year. Keep the class of '97 spirit alive! Chen for Publicity!

Social Chair

Lina Chen & Helen Chen
We are truly glad for the opportunity of being on the 1997 Class Council as co-publicity chair this year. We hope to gain your support once again so that we can continue to keep you informed and to touch next year. Keep the class of '97 spirit alive! Chen for Publicity!