The 1994 Carroll L. Wilson Awards
4 Awards Planned:
- 2 Graduate Student Awards at $7,000 each, and
- 2 Undergraduate Student Awards at $5,000 each.

These awards have been established as a memorial to the late Carroll L. Wilson (32) Professor of Management at the Sloan School and first Mitsui Professor in Problems of Contemporary Technology at MIT. Professor Wilson devoted much of his career toward seeking solutions to important global problems in the areas of application of scientific, engineering, economic, and political analysis to problems of agriculture. The underlying theme of his work was the establishment and maintenance of relations among countries and the strengthening of their institutions and people.

The purpose of the Wilson Awards is to provide opportunities for MIT students to pursue a project which would have excited the interest and enthusiasm of Carroll Wilson.

The prizes will be awarded to students in any department at MIT on the basis of a competitive evaluation of proposals by a Prize Committee.

Application deadline date: March 18, 1994
Interviews of Finalists: April 29, 1994
Announcement of winners: May 10, 1994
