WASHINGTOm---

Webster L. Hubbell, the35-ranking Justice Department official and personal lawyer to Presidents Clinton and Hillary Rodham Clinton, resigned Monday amid allegations that he hid millions of dollars of income from the government and built a "clandestine" law firm as part of an elaborate fraud.

Hubbell said in a statement that an "unjustified" federal investigation by his former partners at Little Rock law firm笛 gave rise to the legal battles.

The Hubbell resignation also intensified the growing cost to the Clinton administration of the ongoing Whitewater controversy and real estate affair. His departure also made it more difficult for the administration in disarray.

"It could not have come at a worse time," said Frances F. Basta, a senior White House official responsible for the president's image and public relations. "We're out to destroy it," Hurley said in an interview.

"This is a family-oriented day, and they're out to destroy it," Hurley said in an interview.
