Faculty Discuss Fairness of CMRAE Review

No one who is concerned with the technological advantages we now enjoy can fail to profit from the message of this book. Moulakis is not only a great teacher, but he is also a pragmatically wise prophet of our civic responsibilities in the world of the high tech.

DEADLINE EXTENDED (there are children who need you)

Teach For America is a national teacher corps which brings non-education majors into urban and rural public school classrooms across the country for a two year commitment. You do not need an education degree. You do need idealism, a willingness to work with at-risk children, the dedication to be a great teacher, and the desire to be part of a corps.

Because the demand for Teach For America teachers has been so incredible this year, we have extended our application deadline until

MARCH 25, 1994

However there are a limited number of applications, so act quickly and apply today!

Applications are available at your campus career service office.
If not, call 1-800/832-1230, ext. 450.
