Boston Symphony Orchestra

FIarvard-Epworth United Methodist Church

9.m.; April 5, 8 p.m. Symphony Hall, 301 Massachusetts Ave. by Dan Bosshardt, the Harvard Church.

April 1-3: 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Boston University, George Sherman Union, Conference Auditorium, Second Floor, 775 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, Information: 333-2240.

A Good Friday jazz concert featuring the top performances.

April 4, 12:30 p.m. Admission: Free. Available in both English and Haitian.

April 4, 10 a.m.-7 noon. Admission: $10. Information: 876-0956, x131.

Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Avenue. April 2-3. Call if You Like It (p.m.). The Hunk (1:15 p.m.). Admissions $5.50; $3.50 for MFA members, seniors. Information: 673-8830, x300

Boston University, George Sherman Union, Conference Auditorium, Second Floor, 775 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, Information: 333-2240.

Boston University, George Sherman Union, Large Ballroom, 775 Commonwealth Ave., Boston. Information: 838-7650.

A Flora of East Asia, the world's ends. Tour of teams of performers try to out-act each other. The audience decides the outcome. The audience decides the outcome.

Boston University, George Sherman Union, East Balcony. 775 Commonwealth Ave., Boston. Information: 253-4444.

Step Lively: Our National Heritage is free. Hours: Through April 17.

Trombone recital. Duo Toccare:

Ongoing. Infor-

Pennsylvania of Our National Heritage is free. Hours:

Step Lively: Our National Heritage is free. Hours: Through April 17.

Philadelphia's 1906-1976: A Centennial Celebration of a Century of Progress. This traveling exhibition has been the largest collection of fly fishing artifacts and memorabilia ever shown. Enhances the history of American fly fishing.

Trombone recital. Duo Toccare: the 20th-century American and Hawaiian music. A demonstration of Chinese chirotherapy, "Instant Chinese Language" activities, and audience participation games with prizes are included as well. April 7, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Boston University, George Sherman Union, Large Ballroom, 775 Commonwealth Ave., Boston. Information: 333-2240.

Museum of Our National Heritage, 33 Maple St., Northboro. Step Lively: The Art of the Folk Canoe. This exhibition celebrates the regional and folk art traditions of 1920s-1940s American culture and its people.

Museum of Our National Heritage, 33 Maple St., Northboro. Step Lively: The Art of the Folk Canoe. This exhibition celebrates the regional and folk art traditions of 1920s-1940s American culture and its people.

Museum of Our National Heritage, 33 Maple St., Northboro. Step Lively: The Art of the Folk Canoe. This exhibition celebrates the regional and folk art traditions of 1920s-1940s American culture and its people.

Museum of Our National Heritage, 33 Maple St., Northboro. Step Lively: The Art of the Folk Canoe. This exhibition celebrates the regional and folk art traditions of 1920s-1940s American culture and its people.

Museum of Our National Heritage, 33 Maple St., Northboro. Step Lively: The Art of the Folk Canoe. This exhibition celebrates the regional and folk art traditions of 1920s-1940s American culture and its people.

Museum of Our National Heritage, 33 Maple St., Northboro. Step Lively: The Art of the Folk Canoe. This exhibition celebrates the regional and folk art traditions of 1920s-1940s American culture and its people.

Museum of Our National Heritage, 33 Maple St., Northboro. Step Lively: The Art of the Folk Canoe. This exhibition celebrates the regional and folk art traditions of 1920s-1940s American culture and its people.

Museum of Our National Heritage, 33 Maple St., Northboro. Step Lively: The Art of the Folk Canoe. This exhibition celebrates the regional and folk art traditions of 1920s-1940s American culture and its people.