Letters To The Editor

Editorial Does LaMacchia No Justice

Your April 12 editorial "Software Piracy a Serious Crime" does not accurately characterize David LaMacchia's connection with the case.

David LaMacchia's Defense Fund or its contractors for the Defense of David David "Mit" LaMacchia No Juststice

Your April 12 editorial "Software Piracy a Serious Crime" deals not clearly that the prosecution against David LaMacchia was improperly funded, nor that he was not found guilty by a jury.

Letters to the editor are welcome. They must be double, typed, and signed. They should be submitted, all letters become property of The Tech, to The Tech, P.O. Box 397029, Cambridge, MA. 02139-7029, or by interdepartmental mail to Room 206E.

Letters and cartoon entries are the official opinions of the Tech. They are written by the editorial board, which is the chairman, editor in chief, managing editor, executive editor, advertising manager, editor in chief, executive editor, advertising manager, and editor in chief.

Disseants, marked as such printed in a distinctive format, are the opinions of the signed members of the editorial board choosing to publish them.

Columns and cartoon entries are written by the editorial board, representing the opinion of the staff, not necessarily that of the newspaper.

Letters are due by 4 p.m. two days before the date of publication.

Letters and cartoon entries must bear the author's signature, address and phone number. No letter or cartoon will be printed anonymously without the express permission of the Tech. The Tech reserves the right to edit or reject any letter. Letters will not be returned. We regret we cannot publish all of the letters we receive.
