Classical Music

Longy School of Music of Bard College

A special performance is held at the Longy School of Music in Cambridge, Mass., for the benefit of the Garden St., Cambridge. Free admission. Information: 767-0968.

Broadway Memphis Pop

A special vocal concert Bette Midler performs the songs of Liza Minnelli and Sondheim, and cabaret vocal in the style of the 1920s. Tickets for The Great American Songbook, Broadway, tickets, available at the box office.

The Annual Noda Brusilova Birthday Concert

A special event presented by the Noda Brusilova Ensemble. The concert is free to the public and features classical music of Ms. Brusilova's, accompanied by her own concertmaster. Concert is preceded by a talk. The Music and the Tchaikovsky Conservatory are presented by Mark Denk, professor of music at Tufts University.

Three Centuries of Music—1794, 1840, 1994

Sept. 18, 8 p.m. Presented by the Long Arts Ensemble. The birth day of Beethoven is most famous for his music and his innovations. The concert commemorates the 200-year anniversary of Beethoven's birth and his contributions to the realm of music.

International Festival of Orthodox Choral Music

Tufts University, 231 Market St, Sington. Sept. 16-18, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Information: 573-9008. This event is the best of its kind in the world and is a significant contribution to the culture of the world.

Eisenhower Majestic Theater Opening

219 Tremont St., Boston. Sept. 17, 10 a.m. Free admission. Information: 786-7776. This opening is the most important event of the season and is expected to draw crowds to the theater as it opens for the first time.

Bloom of the Rose Festival

Boston Symphony Woodwinds

Sept. 21, 8 p.m. Free admission. Information: 786-7776. The Boston Symphony Orchestra is celebrated with the world premiere of a song cycle.

Three Centuries of Music—1794, 1840, 1994

Sept. 18, 8 p.m. Presented by the Long Arts Ensemble. The birth day of Beethoven is most famous for his music and his innovations. The concert commemorates the 200-year anniversary of Beethoven's birth and his contributions to the realm of music.

Emerson Music

Emerson Church, 15 Harvard St., Cambridge. Sept. 21, 8 p.m. Free admission. Information: 573-9008. This event is the best of its kind in the world and is a significant contribution to the culture of the world.

Boston International Jazz Festival

Tufts University, 231 Market St, Sington. Sept. 16-18, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Information: 573-9008. This event is the best of its kind in the world and is a significant contribution to the culture of the world.

Popular Music

September Music at the Mall

The Mall, an event held by the Mall of America. Tickets are available at the box office.

Classical Music

Longy School of Music of Bard College

A special performance is held at the Longy School of Music in Cambridge, Mass., for the benefit of the Garden St., Cambridge. Free admission. Information: 767-0968.

Broadway Memphis Pop

A special vocal concert Bette Midler performs the songs of Liza Minnelli and Sondheim, and cabaret vocal in the style of the 1920s. Tickets for The Great American Songbook, Broadway, tickets, available at the box office.

The Annual Noda Brusilova Birthday Concert

A special event presented by the Noda Brusilova Ensemble. The concert is free to the public and features classical music of Ms. Brusilova's, accompanied by her own concertmaster. Concert is preceded by a talk. The Music and the Tchaikovsky Conservatory are presented by Mark Denk, professor of music at Tufts University.

Three Centuries of Music—1794, 1840, 1994

Sept. 18, 8 p.m. Presented by the Long Arts Ensemble. The birth day of Beethoven is most famous for his music and his innovations. The concert commemorates the 200-year anniversary of Beethoven's birth and his contributions to the realm of music.

International Festival of Orthodox Choral Music

Tufts University, 231 Market St, Sington. Sept. 16-18, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Information: 573-9008. This event is the best of its kind in the world and is a significant contribution to the culture of the world.

Eisenhower Majestic Theater Opening

219 Tremont St., Boston. Sept. 17, 10 a.m. Free admission. Information: 786-7776. This opening is the most important event of the season and is expected to draw crowds to the theater as it opens for the first time.

Bloom of the Rose Festival

Boston Symphony Woodwinds

Sept. 21, 8 p.m. Free admission. Information: 786-7776. The Boston Symphony Orchestra is celebrated with the world premiere of a song cycle.

Three Centuries of Music—1794, 1840, 1994

Sept. 18, 8 p.m. Presented by the Long Arts Ensemble. The birth day of Beethoven is most famous for his music and his innovations. The concert commemorates the 200-year anniversary of Beethoven's birth and his contributions to the realm of music.

Emerson Music

Emerson Church, 15 Harvard St., Cambridge. Sept. 21, 8 p.m. Free admission. Information: 573-9008. This event is the best of its kind in the world and is a significant contribution to the culture of the world.

Boston International Jazz Festival

Tufts University, 231 Market St, Sington. Sept. 16-18, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Information: 573-9008. This event is the best of its kind in the world and is a significant contribution to the culture of the world.

Popular Music

September Music at the Mall

The Mall, an event held by the Mall of America. Tickets are available at the box office.