THE WHITE HOUSE FELLOWSHIPS

The White House Fellowships are a select group of men and women who spend a year early in their careers serving as paid assistants to the President, Vice-President, or cabinet-level officials.

They are people of exceptional abilities, strong motivation, and a desire to serve their country.

White House Fellows have gone on to become leaders in many fields—business, politics, science, and the arts. And they all agree on one thing: Their year as a Fellow changed their lives.

If it often seems as though you have to choose between helping others, and helping yourself—here's a chance to do both. As a White House Fellow, you can serve America while learning skills you will use your entire life.

And instead of just reading about world events, you can help shape them.
