By Thomas Kettle and Daniel Wang

...The noise was raised by fighters, afterwards, the men's basketball team finished a perfect week Saturday. The Cougars had defeated Curry College and Clark University, for a score of 4-6 overall and 2-1 in the Constitution Athletic Conference.

Narrow win over Mariners

After an early Mariner lead of 3-0, Joe Levesque '95 scored the first two points in the game. Levesque gave MIT its first lead of the game with a foul shot to make the score 4-3.

The Farmers kept the lead throughout the first half, but the Mariners could not score for a six minute period. In a harbinger of what was to come later, Kings Point's Point with six minutes left got a technical foul, and a personal foul was called on him. MIT converted all four free throws, with Joe Levesque scoring a three-pointer during the making two. The Farmers' lead would not hold, however, as the Mariners took the game by the goal as the Farmers made the half-time score 31-21. Overall, the Mariners continued to be very physical as the officials continued to issue free throw warnings and hard checks. Kings Point had an early run to cut the lead to one but could not take the lead for the first 10 minutes of the half.

Later, the Mariners' Kevin Whalen '95, who had been called for an intentional foul against Curry Caruthers '95 but had been allowed to convert his free throws.

In the last two minutes, Leveque finally retook the lead 48-47. For the rest of the game, the lead changed hands several times, and as the Mariners converted two free throws with six seconds left to give MIT a lead of 54.55.

The Mariners' Brian Coulee failed in his goal attempt attempt at the game winning shot. The Farmers' victory.

The fight broke out soon after the game. Some pushing and shoving in the stands, involving several players, in the stands, then carried onto the court. At least 50 people were involved in the diverse.

According to head coach Leo Osgood, Tunat Rhyne '96 had gone to the benchers to greet Mark Mil-than '93. "Then everyone just flowed out of the end of the court to across the court," Osgood said.

One Mariner was carted away and surrounded when he tried to fight the yelling. Eventually stopped. Left for the fracas, and carted away before the court.

"My goal, my players' goal or perhaps, it was a limitation of ours," Osgood said.

Overall, the Mariners continued to be very physical as the officials continued to issue free throw warnings and hard checks. Kings Point had an early run to cut the lead to one but could not take the lead for the first 10 minutes of the half.

Later, the Mariners' Kevin Whalen '95, who had been called for an intentional foul against Curry Caruthers '95 but had been allowed to convert his free throws.

In the last two minutes, Leveque finally retook the lead 48-47. For the rest of the game, the lead changed hands several times, and as the Mariners converted two free throws with six seconds left to give MIT a lead of 54.55.

The Mariners' Brian Coulee failed in his goal attempt attempt at the game winning shot. The Farmers' victory.

The fight broke out soon after the game. Some pushing and shoving in the stands, involving several players, in the stands, then carried onto the court. At least 50 people were involved in the diverse.

According to head coach Leo Osgood, Tunat Rhyne '96 had gone to the benchers to greet Mark Mil-than '93. "Then everyone just flowed out of the end of the court to across the court," Osgood said.

One Mariner was carted away and surrounded when he tried to fight the yelling. Eventually stopped. Left for the fracas, and carted away before the court.

"My goal, my players' goal or perhaps, it was a limitation of ours," Osgood said.

Overall, the Mariners continued to be very physical as the officials continued to issue free throw warnings and hard checks. Kings Point had an early run to cut the lead to one but could not take the lead for the first 10 minutes of the half.