156 TREMONT STREETPark Theatre.

Otis Skinner is the reigning favorite this week, presenting his entirely new drama from the French of Jean Richepin, entitled "The Harvester."
It is a powerful love romance of French Canadian life, and Mr. Skinner's character is a notable impersonation of dramatic strength.

Hollis Street Theatre.

This is positively the last week of the stay of William Gillette in this city, and after next Saturday night
"The Admirable Crichton" will be a memory of the past. It is J.
M. Barrie's most delightful bit of satire and gives Mr. Gillette the best character he has played in a long time.

Colonial Theatre.

Richard Mansfield's strong programme for his farewell week is as follows: "Richard III," Monday and Saturday; "A Parisian Romance," Tuesday; "Beau Brummel," Wednesday and Thursday matinee;
"Ivan the Terrible," Thursday;
"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," Friday;
"The Merchant of Venice," Saturday matinee.

Tremont Theatre.

The coming week will be the last of Henrietta Crosman's engagement in "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," and there will be a special matinee Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. The Crosman engagement has been one of the most successful of a very brilliant season.
