Civic Club.

Lieutenant Governor Curtis Guild will address the Civic Club on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the Union. Mr. Guild is one of the best speakers in the State, and no one should fail to avail himself of this opportunity to hear him. Every one is cordially invited.

Hollis Street Theatre.

There will be sorrow among the students of Boston this week, for these are the last nights of "The Rogers Brothers in Paris." The hit continues as great as ever and the finale will meet with crowded houses just as has been the case for the past fortnight. The Rogers Brothers are funnier than ever, and the pretty girls in their company make the stage a delight to the eye at all times.

Park Theatre.

Edward E. Rice's company in "The Merry Shop Girls" will have a notable fortnight, for the girls are as pretty as in any Rice Show seen here in years, and the piece is described as exceedingly funny. Local interest is especially aroused by the fact that Julian Dalton Eltinge, who made his great hit in Cadet and Bank Officers Theatricals, is now a professional actor and appearing in this musical comedy.

Colonial Theatre.

Edna May has a cordial greeting to Boston after several seasons of absence in London, and in "The School Girl" she scores an even greater triumph than that which she obtained in "The Belle of New York." The musical comedy from London has ended a stay in New York which has lasted since September, and now the British company of comedians and beauties starts on a short tour of the leading cities.

Tremont Theatre.

George Ade's successful comedy "The County Chairman" has entered upon the last weeks of its season. Already the play has crowded this theatre for twenty-five performances, and the last two weeks of its run will be greeted with laughing throngs to see this spectacular production.
