WILLIAM A. NICHOLS, PRINTER, 208 SUMMER ST., REAR

Those who remember the B. A. A. Meet of two years ago cannot but note the contrast between the showing Tech made at that time and that which was made last Saturday night. That Tech could not do as well as many of the secondary schools, and could not in the team races make it even interesting for her opponents, is evidence that something is radically wrong with our track athletics this year. Either the best men are not trying in an earnest way, or else they are not being properly trained.

If we are to have a creditable Track Team this Spring it must be the result of a lot of hard, self-sacrificing work on the part of all those concerned. Nor must the undergraduate body neglect its own large part in the making of a successful Team. The student body cannot remain a passive participant—onlooker had almost been written—and expect the men on the Team to win their meets. At least a reasonable amount of interest and encouragement must be shown if the Track Team is to be at all representative of Technology.

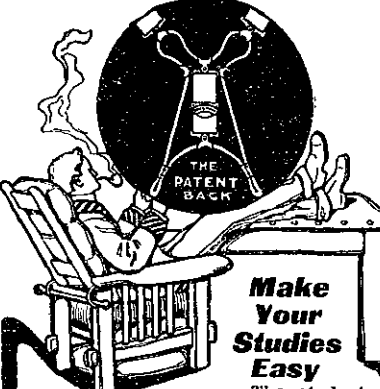

The Indoor Meet which occurs Thursday evening has always proved a good index to the quality of the Track Team which we are to have during the succeeding Spring. It is strongly to be hoped that the meet this year will have not only a large list of entries, but also an enthusiastic attendance.

Tonight, at eight o'clock, the Tech Varsity Basket Ball Team plays Harvard, and the Second Tech Men Team plays the Harvard Out! Second. Come out and help them win! The student body has not shown the right spirit during the present Basket Ball season. There have been some men who have supported the teams faithfully, but they have been exceedingly few.

You can certainly spare an hour or two for this game, which will be well worth seeing simply as an exhibition of basket ball, and by doing so can help to give the men their much needed and well deserved encouragement. Harvard's scores this season show an unbroken record of victories. Come out and help Tech defeat her!

In regard to the call for men for the Show there is no necessity of saying anything to the men who have taken part in previous years. They know the fun and the benefit that come to participants and will be on hand this afternoon. To those who wish to try for the Show but are for one reason or another undecided, it may be said that, while the principal parts require considerable ability, it is generally found possible to find a part in the chorus or ballet for all those who try consistently for a place. If you have the slightest talent or desire to take part, you should certainly attend the meeting at the Union this afternoon.
