Suits and Overcoats from $35

This is the best time of the ENTIRE YEAR, for you to have your FULL DRESS, Tuxedo, or Double-Breasted Frock Suit made. We make a Specialty of these garments and make Special Prices during the slack season. Then again, we have an extra large assortment at this time, and the Tailors always make their work better when not rushed with work and we are willing to figure a little closer to keep our help busy. Step in and let us show them to you. And oblige

Yours Respectfully,

There are still several men in the Junior Class picture who have not been identified. Leave names at the Cage for Technique '06.

There will be a meeting of the Chess Club at 1.15 o'clock, Saturday, March 11, in 11 Rogers. As important business, including the selection of a team and the changing of the constitution will be brought before the meeting, every member is urged to attend.

The following books are missing from the library of the Electrical Engineering Department and have presumably been taken by students who through oversight have neglected to hand in the proper card: Holman, Computation Rules and Logarithms (three copies). Weber, R., A Graduated Collection in Electricity. Foster, H. A., Electrical Engineers' Pocket-book. Hawkins & Wallis, The Dynamo. Smith, E. W., Electrician's Manual of Diagrams. The department will be glad to have students ascertain whether they have any of these books in their possession.

The following men were elected to membership in the Civil En-

The oldest technical school in the United States is the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, at Troy, N. Y. This was founded in 1824, though its period of real activity did not begin until after the Civil War. Those next in order are: Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 1865; Lehigh University, 1866; Worcester Polytechnic Institute, 1868; Stevens Institute, 1871.

Yale University will celebrate two important literary anniversaries this year. May 9, exercises will be held in memory of Schiller, who died May 9, 1904. The three hundredth anniversary of the birth of Sir Thomas Browne, author of "Religio Medici," will come October 19, and an address on his life and work will be given by an eminent authority.

Could You Go to the Klondike?

I WISH to communicate with young men that could accompany me next summer to the Klondike; I spent last summer there and own valuable interests; I can offer the opportunity of a lifetime to the right young men; they must furnish best of references, be physically robust and not afraid of labor, and have some money to invest. Address HIRAM VROOMAN, 5 Park Square.
